

JUST LIKE MINE

Some mothers are loving,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are kind,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are patient,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are strong,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are protective,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are hardworking,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are dependable,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are loyal,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are faithful,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are demanding,
Just like mine.

Some mothers can be stern,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are understanding,
Just like mine.

Some mothers get tired,
Just like mine.

Some mothers need to rest,
Just like mine.

Some mothers are loved forever,
Just like mine.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to acknowledge with deepest gratitude the care and many expressions of love and sympathy from clergymen, doctors, nurses, loved ones friends and neighbors. Your whispered prayers and every deed of kindness have been a source of strength and comfort. We are eternally grateful. The family would like to thank Dr. Jantz, Dr. Peyton, and the entire Tennessee Oncology staff. To Dr. Kehinde: Words cannot express our heartfelt gratitude for your care and support of our loved one. You will always hold a special place in our heart.

*Sometime it is hard to understand why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom God has planned beyond our power to see.
God watched you as you labored, he saw you had your share,
He gently closed your eyes and took you in His care.*

Most of all, we thank our merciful heavenly Father.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Hence forth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."

2 Timothy 4:7-8

January 24, 2014, God in his infinite wisdom deemed it necessary to call from our midst

Gladys Robertson

So, it is now that we pause to reflect upon the life of our beloved Cornelia

Gladys Cornelia Corder Robertson was born March 14, 1947, to the late James Corder and Anna Marie Wharton. She attended school in the Wilson County School System and graduated from Wilson County High School. She transitioned from this life on January 24, 2014 at her home.

She was a member of Market Street Church of Christ where she attended until failing health.

Cornelia was married to the late Charles Rhea Robertson and to this union two children were born, Buffy Latrice (Anthony) Dilligard and Karla L. (William) Douglas. She was the proud grandmother of Calais Anna-Marie Dilligard, Catherine Milan Dilligard, Jazlyn Rhea Douglas and Caitlyn Danasia Douglas.

Cornelia loved to work in her flower garden, bargain shop, plan family events and cook for family and friends. She also enjoyed her time spent working with the Southwest Community Club.

As a mother, sister, aunt and friend, Cornelia had multiple roles - - provider, advisor and counselor. Her passion was to do things to keep family and friends in a loving connection. She will certainly be missed.

In addition to her daughters, sons-in-law and grandchildren, she is survived by one aunt, Martha Gladys Corder; six sisters, Doris Jean Beard, Mary Sue Stafford, Carlene Jenkins, Elizabeth Taylor, Lois Word, and Cynthia Alexander; two brothers, Thomas Corder and Larry Corder; four sisters-in-law, Patricia Seay, Gloria Seay, Brenda Gale Rhodes and Quinessa Corder; five brothers-in-law, Ulmer Stafford, Jackie Jenkins, Deotis Taylor, Ronnie Word, and Charles Alexander; devoted first cousin and niece respectively, Billie Ann Burton and Melony Cason; special friend, Garland Allen; many other devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Dear Mama,

God blessed me 39 years ago with so much more than a mom. You have been a provider, a shield, a teacher and most importantly, a "best friend"!

You spoiled me from day one and I'm so grateful God allowed me to spoil you because you have done so much for me.

Now you have gone back home and you will again take care of me but in a very different way. You will be my guardian angel and guide me through the way.

Even though I'm sad and not sure of what to do, I know you will lead me through.

I Love You,
"Sugar"
