

FAREWELL MY FRIEND...MRS. MITCHELL

Farewell my friend, you're leaving, it's time to go
Your friendship was a blessing, and I will miss you so.
We shared so many secrets, you brightened up my days,
You brought me so much happiness, with your kind and loving ways.
You lifted up my spirits, when I was feeling blue,
No matter what was happening, you knew just what to do.
Through all the ups and downs of life, the good times and the sad,
From work life to late night talks, the best friend I ever had
God is here to take you home, now you and I must part,
I love you and forever you will live within my heart.

Your friend,
Lynn

*God called your name so gently, that only you could hear,
No one heard the footsteps of the angel drawing near...
Softly from the shadows, there came a gentle call,
You closed your eyes and went to sleep

“Reflections”

CAROL JEAN PROVINE MITCHELL

The Lord has decided to call one more of his children home. He touched Carol at Northside Nursing Facility at 8:34 p.m. on April 30, 2015 and said, “Well done, my good and faithful servant, come and take your rest.”

Carol Jean Provine Mitchell,

71, was born to the union of Holford Provine and Sadie Geneva Provine of Lebanon, TN on June 18, 1943. She was preceded in death by two sisters: Frances Bernice Manning and Margaret Spence; and niece, Patricia Cowan.

She received her education in the Wilson County school system and her formal education at Tennessee State University. She graduated from TSU. Carol was faithful and a dedicated employee for the Rutherford County School System for many years as an educational Assistant. She wore many hats throughout her life’s journey but the most important and inspiring hat was that of a mother to Earl, Jr. Carol was a wonderful sister, aunt, cousin, friend and co-worker. She enjoyed attending her alma mater events, working with kids and shopping. Carol was a phenomenal woman.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her loving and devoted son, Earl Mitchell, Jr. of Murfreesboro, TN; sisters: Dorothy Gaskin-Drakeford and Holford Geneva

Simms; one brother, John Morgan Provine; one niece, Delphia (Eric) Spence-Adeeku; devoted cousin, Patricia Waters; devoted friends: Lynn Davis, Audrey Joyner, Dedrick Roberts and Lena Mitchell and a host of other close relatives and friends.

“ODE TO CAROL”

You came into this world on a near summer’s day with your southern belle charm always on display.

It's true, you warmed hearts with your sweet gentle ways. Co-workers, friends and neighbors all spoke of you with praise.

A loving, amazing mother, sister, aunt and educator too...What else can we say about the essence of you. Let's see...well dressed, generous, quiet dignity, to name just a few.... and your delightful smile would brighten any room.

Ah yes!...a quiet dignity, let's take a closer view. Soft spoken words, not too many, not too few, just the right tone that's the essence of you.

As you leave this cold world for that far distant place... a place we call heaven, yes let's meet there one day. Let's sit on God's porch swing and sip some sweet tea. Ah yes! And singing hallelujah!! What a great day that will be.

Carol, while departing this world on a near summers day, you leave cherished memories that will... remain... on... display.
