

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
An angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all that we shared, and all the fun we had.
I had so much to live for, so much left to do,
It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Do not think we're apart, for every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

REFLECTIONS OF BETTY LOU

May 31, 1945-March 23, 2016

Betty Lou Chumney Stafford was born on May 31, 1945 to the late Bill and Mattie Chumney. On March 23, 2016 God decided it was time to take her home. So she peacefully and quietly went to her everlasting home. Not only does she leave many memories behind, but she leaves a caring and loving family behind who will always miss her. We will always cherish the good times and the laughter that we shared. She was also a caregiver for many years at Pineview Boarding Home in Hartsville, TN.

Betty Lou was preceded in death by her father, Bill Chumney, her mother, Mattie Chumney, her husband, Jimmy Stafford, brother, Billy Chumney and sister, Daisy Ward.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory two sons: Bobby and Charles Ray Stafford; one daughter, Peggy Chumney; five grandchildren: Ashley, LaQuintez and Monica Chumney, Brittany and Charee Stafford; great grandchildren: Armane, Nelyus, Dederick, Trinity, Teya, Passion and B.J.; one brother, John Chumney; one sister, Pearlee Allen; sisters-in-law, Kathren White and Marie Hearn; aunt, Hilda Chumney; a devoted niece, Ruth Logue and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

<sup>1</sup>Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. <sup>2</sup>In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. <sup>4</sup>And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. <sup>5</sup>Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? <sup>6</sup>Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto Father, but by me.

John 14:1-6
