WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey, and I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned, and remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken, remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had heartache, and remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered, and sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles, and won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers, and remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening, when the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me, and remember only my best.

FAREWELL DEAR MOTHER

Somewhere in our heart beneath all our grief and pain, is a smile we still wear at the sound of your dear name. The precious word is "Mother", she was the world to us, but now our heart is breaking cause she's no longer here with us. God chose her for his angel to watch us from above, to guide us and advise us and know that we're still loved. The day she had to leave us, when her life on earth was through, God had better plans for her, for this, we surely knew. When we think of her kind heart and all those loving years, our memories surround us and we can't hold back the tears. She truly was our best friend, someone we could confide in, she always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin. We want to thank you mother for teaching us so well, and though the time has come that we must bid you this farewell.

Although you've left this earth and now you're taking flight,
We know that you are here with us each morning, noon and night.

Your loving children
