

From Minnie to “Pee Wee”,

As we prepare to put you to bed, I say thank you to God first, and then to our deceased, Robert Reynolds for the blessing of you and I to have ever met. Even more thankful for you especially that the clock of life is wound but once; and that no man has the power to tell just when the hands will stop, at late or early hour.

Until that Grand Day, I pray for you to rest in the arms of Jesus in perfect peace.

*Your sister by another,
Minnie McReynolds*

CHARLES WOODARD “PEEWEE”

*To everything there is a season and time to every purpose under the heavens.
Ecclesiastes 3:1*

A Time to Be Born: In the month of October, the day was the fourteenth and the year being nineteen hundred and forty-nine, the union of Paul A. (Virginia) Woodard was blessed to become the proud parents of Charles Woodard, who later acquired the nickname “Pee Wee.”

A Time to Weep: Pee Wee who was preceded in death by both his parents, Paul A. and Virginia Woodard, granddaughter, C’Asia Patton, best friend “Big Mac” and grandson Rashad ‘Ziggy’ Seay, whom he gave the nickname “Ziggy” this was his boy.

A Time to Build: As a child, Pee Wee was taught the Gospel of Christ by being carried, not sent but carried to worship by his mother, Virginia Woodard. He had a zeal of knowledge according to truth, because he heard the Gospel (Romans 10:17) the more he heard; he believed (Hebrew 11:6 and Mark 16:15-16). His believing led him to repent (Acts 2:38 and Luke 13:3). After repenting, he found himself confessing (Matt 10:32-33 and Acts 8:36-37). After confessing and accepting Jesus Christ as his savior, he was buried in baptism. Pee Wee received his educational and academic studies in the Schools of Warren County and McMinnville, Tennessee.

A Time To Love: Though he was not one to constantly express his feelings or emotions, I know that he had the greatest love for his mother. I know that he had a special spot for his niece Marcie. He’d brag to me of, as he’d say, “what she became” and just loved his cousin Patricia McGee. His love for his children Rashad, Teze, Squirt, C’Asia and Montorie was phenomenal and unconditional. As for “Minnie Pearl”, I know he love me. We had a bond that some biological siblings never know. I was his go to for any and all.

A Time to Share: Your heart was of a giving nature, always freely giving and sharing, even if it left you penniless...often giving of yourself.

A Time To Mourn: I’ve seen him as none other due to death of a great many. His worst being his mother, Virginia Woodard, C’Asia and Ziggy. In recognition of others you leave to mourn your homegoing are your sister, Cynthia Ann Woodard; Brother, Tommy (JoAnn) Woodard; Best of sister/friend, Minnie Pearl McReynolds; grandsons, Heaven Seay, Montorie Patton, Rashad Seay, Sr. (Breanca), Robert McReynolds, Jr. (Raetisha); great niece, Ava Seay; aunts and nephews.

A host of cousins, associates, nieces, nephews too numerous to mention. Special friends: Harry Harris, Clarence Williams, Shatena Cowan and Diana Cowan.

Tribute to “My Best of Grand Pops”

You are the best of all the Fathers/Grandfathers, Pops and a boy’s best friend to reside on this side of Heaven. Pee Wee, my Buddy, I am, is and will always miss you. You loved us in a paternal way that no other could. We became your world in one big heart.

And without question, you were our everything. We were blessed to have you walk along with us, loving us unconditionally. Ain’t forgotten what you told me about when I am carrying the ball and my prayer is that I hope you had the ball when God said “Touchdown” Pee Wee and Game is over.
