

*If I could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
I'd express all my unspoken love,
I'd have countless things to say.
If I could bring you back again,
I'd say I treasured you,
And that your presence in my life,
Meant more than you ever knew.*

LIFE STORY

DEBORAH JEAN ANDERSON

October 29, 1955 - September 9, 2018

*"A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts,
That never can be filled."*

Deborah Jean Anderson graced the world with her presence on October 29, 1955 in Lebanon, Tennessee, marking a special day for her parents, Pascal Harrison and Oukreda Moore. She was the third child born to this union.

Though her spirit will live on, her earthly duties ended on September 9, 2018.

Her education extended from Cincinnati, Ohio to Lebanon, Tennessee then to Springfield, Massachusetts where she graduated from Trade High School. By the late 1970's, Deborah returned to make Lebanon her preference of permanent resident.

Deborah was employed by Prospect for a number of years, fulfilling various work assignments there. After a prosperous work history retirement became a part of her life. This space in her life journey enabled her to have more time to enjoy one of her favorite past-times, which was collecting movie DVDs of almost every genre. She also loved various types of music and loved to sing.

Deborah leaves to celebrate her life to her especially devoted and only daughter, Elaine Anderson; and sister, Elizabeth Garrett-Leak. Deborah loved children and she had a deep love for family and her memory is now entrusted to them.

WHEN YOU THINK OF ME

When you think of me, think of all the things I used to be
All the things that I believed, all the dreams that I dreamed
Sunshine and rainbows, all the things that made me smile
Life and laughter, all the things that are worthwhile

Beauty and love all the things that I adored
The wonderment of life, all the things that I longed for
Know this as time goes by, and you look into the sky
Don't cry for now, I can fly

When you think of me, think of all the things I used to be
And believe I am smiling, because I am FREE!
