

CELEBRATE MY LIFE

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night,
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears,
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone;
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath,
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death,
But CELEBRATE MY LIFE.

OBITUARY

¹ Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe in Me as well.

² In My Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and welcome you into My presence, so that you also may be where I am. ... John 14:1-3

ALICE BETSY WOODFIN

Alice Betsy began her journey September 26, 1932 in Savannah, Georgia, one of nine siblings born to the late Lawrence and Epsie Griffin. She completed her journey on Monday, November 19, 2018, in Smyrna, Tennessee.

When she was 12 years old, the Griffin family moved to Petersburg, Virginia, where she grew up, and after graduating from Peabody High School, she met and married her late husband Melvin McClain-Walker. They relocated to Long Island, NY where they raised four children.

She enjoyed taking care of people. She attended LPN school while working at Pilgrim State Psychiatric Hospital, where she continued to work for 10 years. Her love for taking care of people was so that she opened up her home to foster children and adults in need.

In 1974, she moved to Knoxville, TN. In 1976 she met and married her second husband, Raymond Woodfin, (deceased) remaining in Knoxville she continued her passion for caring for others, until 1999 before returning to Petersburg VA, where she lived until relocating to Smyrna, TN about 1 year ago.

Alice is preceded in death by her daughter, Melvina P. Walker-Terry; grandson, Christopher E. Walker; sisters: Lula Griffin, Aretha Michaels, and Willie (Willa) Mae Griffin; and brothers: Raleigh Griffin, Rubon Griffin and James Griffin.

Survivors to cherish her memories are her sister, Delphine Taylor (Washington, DC) and brother, Lee Griffin (Petersburg, VA); children: Shaundra Gordon (Edward), Christopher L. Walker, Glynis G. Bowie (Thomas), and Nikos Burgess (foster son), nine grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Recessional

If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.
Please tell her that I love her, and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
Remembering her will be easy, I will do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.
