WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey, and I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned, and remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken, remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had heartache, and remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered, and sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles, and won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers, and remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening, when the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me, and remember only my best.

OBITUARY

Anthony Dwight Palmer

NOVEMBER 30, 1955 - FEBRUARY 26, 2019

*If I should go tomorrow, it would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you, so don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me, shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens, and it will heal the scars.*

Anthony Dwight Palmer was born November 30, 1955 to parents: Charles Palmer, Jr. and Callie Mai Palmer. He departed this earthly life February 26, 2019.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free; I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Ah, yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow; I wish you the sunshine tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me; God wanted me now, but He set me free,
