

ANOTHER LIMB

Another limb has fallen from the family tree,
I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
The good life I lived, while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you,
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest,
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small,
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin,
Until the day comes when we're together again.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Original handwritten songs written by Oliver

Poem is written from original content of Oliver.
Words are spelled as he had them originally spelled.

I was standing that equator with Jesus by my side, the feeling was so great it bought tears to my eyes. On his right hand was sheeps and on left hand was his goats. All of hevan singing those beautiful notes. Reframe:

All my friends and family greated me with a smile and all though the unrightness and sinners wold be denied. Reframe

So one of Jesus angel came to me glowing with pride. Do you have the trophy if you do so God will be by your side. Reframe

I was standing in that city where all the streets where the are paved with gold. There are people from all nations children young and old. There was joy, peace and love more than any one can hold. The sky was fill with rainbow so beautiful and...

Sometime I get a knock on my door everyone is welcome to come in to share your problem or even discust your sins. As you walk in the door you'll see my red chair, every knowd that I'm the only one who sit there. On my wall there are three shiney hub cap for all to see, the middle hub cap is a clock represent Jesus who control all time of you and me. I took two hubcaps for the theif and murder to be by his side. So the promise he made wouldn't be denied. The most presious thing hanging on my wall is Jesus and his eleven deciples may have to judge us.
