

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not too long, and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love we once shared, miss me - But let me go!

For this journey we all must take; and each must go alone,
It's all part of the master plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO!

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

-Psalm 30:5

To my GIGI, who is now my angel,

I just want to tell you how much I love you and how thankful I am for you. If it wasn't for you none of us would be here. I just want to say, "Thank you God" for letting GIGI come into the world. Now that you are in a better place called HEAVEN you can rest and not be sick anymore. You are at peace and your soul has gone to heaven. You are now safe in Jesus' arms where you're happy. I'm very sure that you miss us as much as we miss you. One day we will all be reunited with GIGI, but until then we will continue to live through you. We are lucky to have known you as the strong woman that you were.

I am very lucky to be your sweet great granddaughter as with all your other grandchildren and great grandchildren. Now that you're in heaven you are looking down on us and watching over us. You will forever be in our hearts as we wait to see you again in heaven!

I miss you and I love you GIGI,

Amia

HER LIFE STORY

Martha Clara Thompson Brooks

OCTOBER 25, 1939 - APRIL 10, 2019

On the day of April 10, 2019, Martha Clara Thompson Brooks heard the call of her Heavenly Father. It was during her brief illness at her residence that she answered, "Yes Lord".

Martha Clara Thompson Brooks was born into this life to her parents: Willie B. and Willie Mai Abston on October 25, 1939. After a brief illness, she departed this life on April 10, 2019 at her residence with family at her side. Her life's journey was over, and she left it all for her new heavenly home.

Martha is preceded in death by husband, Robert Howell Brooks and sisters and brothers.

She attended school in the Wilson County school system and was a 1957 graduate of Wilson County High School. She also attended school to become a Nurse's Technician from Memorial Hospital in Madison, TN, where she was employed for many years.

Martha was a member of Rutland Baptist Church, where she enjoyed attending when her health would allow her. She was a quiet and classy lady who loved her family and spending time with them. In her earlier years she loved a good fishing hole, cooking, and her all-time love of sports. There wasn't any better team than her LAKERS. On March 1, 1958, she married her life long companion, Robert H. Brooks. They were blessed with five children in this union.

She leaves to cherish her life of memories to those she left behind, children: Teresa Caruthers, Gary (Michele) Brooks, Jacqueline (Kevin) Wilson, Sherry Brooks and Timothy (Melody) Brooks, Sr.; grandchildren: Cornelius (Celeste) Caruthers, Corey Caruthers, Brittany (Leon) Covington, Andre, Kaylin, Alana, Timothy, Jr., Brandon Brooks and Kevin Wilson, Jr.; great-grandchildren: Yasmin and Corlin Caruthers, Amia Sesay, Mykah Caulder and Bianca Bradshaw; god-children: Vicki and Lauren Mendoza; sisters: Odelia Bender, Betty (James) Martin; brother, Donald (Linda) Abston; sister-in-law, Lois (Harold) Ewin; uncle, Eddie Jenkins. Devoted family friends: Crystal Campbell, Sherry Carr, Nikki Brooks, Teyonna, Terrell and Evangelist Cliffordene Brooks. She was also blessed with many nephews, nieces and cousins.

UPERWOMAN

My granny is my hero. I love her to death and I don't know what I would do without her. She is always here for me, no matter what the concept is. She always takes me shopping and takes me out to eat. She is like the coolest granny ever. She bay-sat me when I was younger. She took me to pre-school every day when my mom had to work. She knows how to make jokes up. My granny always keeps me on track with my school work and up to date on what events are coming up. There is no one like her in the world. Most people would die to have a granny like mine.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
