For this we “The Family” would like to thank you for endless hours of love.

- The Family

There’s a gate at the end of the road,
Through each must go alone,
There’s a light we cannot see, our Father claims His own.
Beyond the gates our loved one, finds happiness and rest,
There’s comfort in the thought, that a loving God knows best.
Reverend Ausley was licensed in 1989 and ordained in 1990 to preach the gospel of Christ. He pastored Dickerson Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Lebanon, TN from 1990 until 2000. \textit{To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:} \textit{A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;} \textit{A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;} \textit{A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;}

Your Loving Family

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor prinprincipalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
-Romans 8: 38-39
God watched you as you suffered,
And He knew you had your share;
He gently closed your weary eyes,
And took you in His care.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With that we will never part;
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our hearts.
Our Final Tribute

Road To Eternity

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what’s to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet Eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some the journey’s quicker,
For some, the journey’s slow.

But when the journey finally ends,
We’ll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Your Loving Family

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

-Romans 14:8
