*When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
The angel said my place was ready in heaven above
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home,
For God looked down and smiled at me and told me, "Welcome Home".
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we are far apart,
For every time you think of me, I am right there in your heart.*

Pamela Huston-Kimbro

NOVEMBER 29, 1965-MAY 19, 2019

Pamela Huston-Kimbro was born on November 29, 1965 at St. Mary's Hospital in Brooklyn, New York to the proud parents of Rufus and Katie Huston. She was the fourth of eight children born to this union. She transitioned from this life on Sunday, May 19, 2019.

Pam, also affectionately known as "Pammie" and "Auntie Pam" held a special place in everyone's heart who knew her well. She graduated from Hillcrest High School in Jamaica, NY in June 1983. Having been raised in a christian home, she was faithful in serving in many capacities at Lighthouse of Deliverance Church of Christ Holiness Unto the Lord in Springfield Gardens, New York where her father was the pastor. Also, she served as secretary and sang as a strong alto in her beloved Norther District Choir.

After graduating high school, Pam attended business school to pursue secretarial studies. Her skills and strong work ethic made her a valuable employee at the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), New York from February 10, 1986 through March 9, 1996. She started as a clerk typist and ultimately progressed to the position of Intelligence Research Specialist. After relocating to Nashville, TN in the mid 90's, she became employed with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and afterwards with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). After many years of service as a state and federal government employee, she retired and enjoyed the last few years of her life spending time with her beloved husband, her immediate family and her church family.

Pam became a member of Greater Life...New Destiny Christian Life Fellowship Church of God in Christ. She held numerous positions within the church and served faithfully. She enjoyed working the church's flea market during the summer months and singing in the choir. She especially loved her Pastor/brother-in-law and would work feverishly to make sure he was well taken care of. Pam loved the work of the Lord and carried out all assignments with excellence.

Pam was joined in holy matrimony to Fernando Kimbro on October 23, 2010. Pam was hospitable, loved to cook and host events at her home—tradition passed down and received from her grandparents and parents, whom she greatly loved. She enjoyed dining out with her husband. She was fond of hanging out with her siblings and other close family members. Her interests included being a Mary Kay representative, planning small events for family and church members, and watching crime-solving television shows.

Pam was a woman of strong convictions and commitment. Despite her health challenges, she was not a complainer and encouraged others. She deeply loved her family and was there for them. Pam was affectionately loved by her family and will be deeply missed. She was preceded in death by her sister, Ethel Huston.

Her memories will be cherished by her devoted husband, Fernando Kimbro; two stepsons: Travis (Lydia) Kimbro and Corey Kimbro; stepdaughter, Shamir Jubert Kimbro; her loving parents: Rufus and Katie Huston; four sisters: Karen (Mario) Smith, Danette (Vernal) Sweeting, Tanya Huston and Monique (Paul) Taylor; two brothers: Lionel (Demitruess) Huston and Wade (Bridelle) Huston; step grandchild, Ava; three godchildren: father-in-law, James Kimbro, Sr.; brothers-in-law: Scott (Tamica) Majors, James Jr. Kimbro and Steven Buchanan; sisters-in-law: Brenda Kimbro, Linda Kimbro, Marilyn Kimbro, Pamela Kimbro, Rochelle Kimbro and Tamica Daniels; uncle -in-law (who married them), Leon (Nora) Daniels; five nephews: Vasilios Tryphonas, Maurice (Breanna) Sweeting, Justin Tryphonas, Marcus (Jaleesa) Sweeting and Marque Sweeting; three nieces: Alexis Huston, Courtney Huston, and Sasha Taylor; one great grandnephew, Tavian Sweeting and five great grandnieces: Makala Sweeting, Aniya Watkins, Tavaya Sweeting, Kimani Custodio, Erin Sweeting and a host of others which include aunts, uncles, cousins and beloved friends.
