

CELEBRATE MY LIFE

Softly from the shadows, there came a gentle call,
I closed my eyes and went to sleep and quietly left you all.
My chapter has been closed, my page has been turned,
My life was well lived, my rest well earned.

Remember not the fight for breath;
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death...but,
CELEBRATE MY LIFE!

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10

BIRDIE MAE SPURLOCK

September 20, 1941- October 19, 2019

Birdie Mae Spurlock was born September 20, 1941 in Smith County, Tennessee to the union of Jack and Savanna Coggins, who both preceded her in death. Also preceded in death by her husband, Jack Spurlock. She left this earthly life to begin her eternal life on October 19, 2019. She was educated in the Wilson County School system. Birdie was a member of Ballard Chapel Methodist Church in Stonewall, TN. She loved life and never let grass grow under her feet. She played cards, loved fishing and going to the casinos. She loved to travel with the Senior Citizens on their trips.

She leaves to cherish her memory, children: Annette Coggins Whitley and Glenda Hamton (Brian), and love from another child; grandchild: April Kendall (Darrell); blessed with other grandchildren and great grandchildren; sister, Goldie Brown; brother: James (Charlene) Coggins and sister-in-law, Anne Coggins. She will also be missed by nieces, nephews and cousins.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we shared, miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and all must go alone.
It's all a part of the Masters Plan, a step on the road to home.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Birdie Mae Spurlock express our sincere gratitude to our many friends for all deeds of kindness and expressions of love shown us during the passing of our loved one.
