

Acknowledgements

The family and friends of the late Illya J. Cartwright would like to express their sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon Mr. Cartwright. Your heartfelt displays of love, care, and concern for him are much appreciated as well as your continued acts of love for his family and friends during this time of loss. May God richly bless you, "for whatsoever you do for the least of my children, you do unto me."

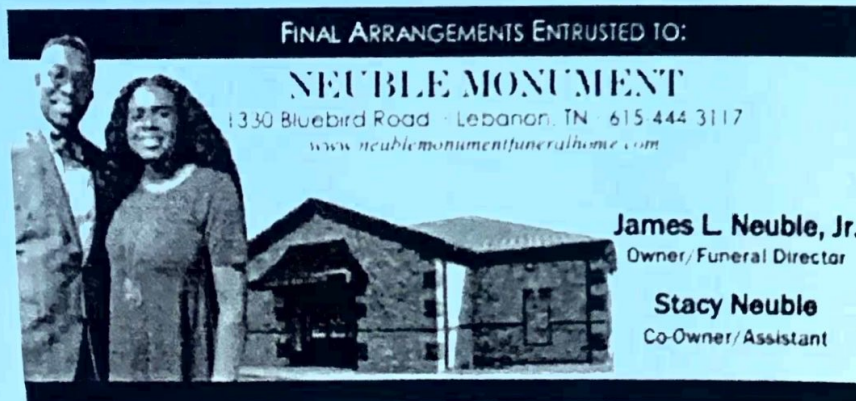

With sincere thanks,
- The Family & Friends of Illya J. Cartwright

Soon and Very Soon Words & Music by Andrae' Crouch

Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, we are going to see the King

No more crying there, we are going to see the King
No more crying there, we are going to see the King
No more crying there, we are going to see the King
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, we are going to see the King

No more dying there, we are going to see the King
No more dying there, we are going to see the King
No more dying there, we are going to see the King
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, we are going to see the King

Obituary

Illya Jamal Cartwright, 44, originally from Detroit, MI passed away in Lebanon, TN on Monday, January 27, 2020. He is preceded in death by father Charles Ray Cartwright, grandmother Annie Lou Cartwright, and grandfather Sam Cartwright Jr. He is survived by mother Kathleen Prei from Wausau, WI, uncle Kenneth Vaden from Lebanon, TN, uncle James Howard (Margaret) Vaden from Seattle, WA, and aunt Shirley Vaden from Lebanon, TN, companion Kimberly Goodwin from Lebanon, TN, and a host of other family members, nephews, nieces, cousins, relatives, and friends.

Illya can be best be described as a fun-loving person who loved his friends and family. He was an encourager and always made those around him smile and laugh. He will surely be missed by those who loved and cared for him.

The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:19
