

CELEBRATE MY LIFE

Softly from the shadows, there came a gentle call,
I closed my eyes and went to sleep and quietly left you all.
My chapter has been closed, my page has been turned,
My life was well lived, my rest well earned.

Remember not the fight for breath;
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death...but,
CELEBRATE MY LIFE!

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10

KAREN ANNETTE BRITTON

January 13, 1962 - April 16, 2020

Karen Annette Britton was born January 13, 1962 in Lebanon, TN to James W. Britton and the late Doris Carter Britton. She left this earthly life to begin her eternal life on April 16, 2020. She was preceded in death by her mother, Doris Carter Britton; sister, Darlene Britton; uncles: Robert Carter and James Carter; and niece, Jaime Britton. She was a graduate of Mt. Juliet High School. Karen was a member of Laguardo Missionary Baptist Church. She loved church and loved good singing. She truly enjoyed hearing the SiBlingS sing and followed them on their singing engagements. She was employed at L and W Engineering.

She leaves to cherish her memory, devoted father, James W. Britton; sister, Beverly Britton; brothers: James Edward (Ervette) Britton, James Michael (Robbie) Britton, Terry and Carl Britton; devoted nieces and nephews; aunts: Alverta Carter and Martha Mitchell; uncles: Jerry (Veronica) Britton and Robert Britton. She was also blessed with a myriad of cousins and friends.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little, but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we shared, miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and all must go alone.
It's all a part of the Masters Plan, a step on the road to home.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Karen Annette Britton express our sincere gratitude to our many friends for all deeds of kindness and expressions of love shown us during the passing of our loved one.
