

Tribute to Linda

You came into our family
As though you were already a part,
You let us know you loved us,
And you captured all our hearts.

You offered your time and talents
To strengthen the family ties;
Your special love
for our one family member,
Tells why the scripture call you wise.

Thank you for leaving for us,
A part of you to cherish;
Your daughter carries on as the remnant
Of you which will never ever perish.

HER LIFE STORY

Linda Word Lawrence

January 3, 1948 - June 23, 2020

Linda Word Lawrence was born on January 3, 1948 to the late Charlie Word, Sr. and Annie Pearl Word in Gladeville, Tennessee. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and was a devoted member of the Gladeville Missionary Baptist Church. She served faithfully as a choir member and pianist for many years until her health began to fail. Her passing has left many in sadness, but her strength and courage has left everlasting memories. We will forever miss Sister Linda and her sweet voice, for the Lord has truly ordered her steps.

Sister Linda was educated in the Wilson County school system and later graduated from Tennessee State University where she received her nursing degree. She was a devoted nurse and truly loved her patients. She worked many years until her health failed.

Linda was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Lawrence and her parents: Charlie Word, Sr. and Annie Pearl Word.

Sister Linda Lawrence leaves to mourn in her passing, a daughter, Lauren Kynda (Nyrecus) Strayhorn; four sisters: Barbara (Eddie) Ballard, Brenda Word, Joann Word and Debbie Brooks; one sister-in-law, Roberta Lawrence; one aunt, Eleanor Collier; four brothers: Ronnie (Lois) Word, Charlie Word, Jr., Kenneth (Teresa) Word and Steve Brooks. She was also blessed with a host of nieces, nephews cousins, friends and church members.

My Dearest Family

Some things I would like to say, but first of all, I need to let you know... I arrived today.

I'm writing this from heaven where I dwell with God above. Where there are no more tears of sadness, just eternal love.

Do not be unhappy because I am out of sight; Remember that I am with you every morning, noon and night.

I am now content that my life was worthwhile, even though it is now over. I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.

Loving you always and forever,

Linda
