

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside, Into the shadows where we could confide. Away from the bustle where all the day long, I hurried and worried when active and strong. I needed the quiet tho' at first I rebelled, but gently, so gently, my cross He upheld. And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things Tho' weakened in body, my spirit took wings. To heights never dreamed of when active and gay, He loved me so greatly, He drew me away. I needed the quiet. No prison, my bed, but a beautiful valley of blessings instead. A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide, I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside.

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey, and I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned, and remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken, remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had heartache, and remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered, and sometimes fell by the way,
Remember I have fought some hard battles, and won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

A LIFE REMEMBERED
