ANDREANA JOANAY VEGA

June 27, 1999 - September 14, 2020

Andreana's sun rose on June 27, 1999 and sunset on September 14, 2020. Andreana was a bright young woman with a beautiful spirit. She never failed to bring a smile to anyone she came in contact with.

She graduated from Holloway High School in Murfreesboro, Tennessee in 2017 which she felt was one of her greatest accomplishments. Shortly thereafter she gave birth to her son, Zy'Shere, who brought her and her family immeasurable joy.

Andreana pushes for everyone to believe in themselves as she believed in everyone she loved. She has a fun personality and often times many selfies were left on unattended phones. Her son, Zy'Shere was her pride. She strove to be better for her son everyday that she was on this earth. Although God has called her home she will live on, not only in the hearts of all those whom she loves, but also through the life of her precious son. Rest in love Glamorous, we will see you again soon.

Andreana is survived by her mother Felicia Watkins; sister, Janecia Jackson; son, Zy'Shere Vega; grandmother, Carrie B. Keith; cousin, Elicia Gooley, as well as many dear friends.

God grant me the SERENITY to accept the things I cannot change,
COURAGE to changes the things I can and
WISDOM to know the difference.
