

WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey, and I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned, and remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken, remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had heartache, and remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered, and sometimes fell by the way,
Remember I have fought some hard battles, and won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day,
But in winter just gather some flowers, and remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening, when the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me, and remember only my best.

Henrietta Joyner Seay-Blair

FEBRUARY 3, 1941-DECEMBER 21, 2020

Henrietta Joyner Seay-Blair born February 3, 1941 in Lebanon, TN. She made her earthly transition into eternal life on December 21, 2020. She was born to Alice Marie Robinson-Joyner (mother) Arthur Perry Joyner (father). She was married to John T. Seay and later to Virgil Blair. Henrietta was preceded in death by her husband, Virgil (Fuzzy) Blair, friend of mention, Mr. Jay W. Marshall; brothers: Alfred and Perry Joyner; son, Corey L Seay; and a host of nephews and other family members.

Henrietta's marriage to John Thomas Seay bore three sons: Greggory Seay, Corey Seay and James (Patrick) Seay and of these three sons a host of grandkids and great grandkids were part of this union. At an early age Henrietta joined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church of which she remained a faithful and devoted member until her death.

Henrietta met no strangers; she was a friend to anyone she met and always greeted them with a smile of welcome. Henrietta attended Wilson High School and graduated in 1959. She also attended Tennessee State University. Henrietta was employed at McFarland Hospital Medical Center, University Medical Center and many other home health businesses where she was able to touch many lives with her kind heart. When she worked for Prospect Medical rehab Center at which she cared for a client for ten years by the name of Charles. She loved that young man and took him everywhere she went; everyone knew Henrietta and Charles. Henrietta was a loving and devoted individual who spoke her mind and dedicated her life to serving others without any expectation of anything in return. She was a great cook. She did not mind fixing breakfast and dinner for people but lunch...NO WAY, you were on your own! Henrietta was an avid woman of prayer and made sure to reach out and pray with her family before they got on the road.

Henrietta leaves to mourn two sons: Greggory Seay and James (Patrick) Seay; daughter in-law, Pamela Seay; three sisters: Maggie Williams (Cleveland Ohio), Dorothy Chatton (Columbus Ohio), and Jacqueline Woods (Bowling Green, KY), loving sister-in-law, Audrey Joyner (Lebanon, TN); one brother, Ronnie Joyner (Aretha Joyner), (Alpharetta, GA); a loving aunt, Queen Ester Stevenson; grandchildren and great grandchildren and host of other loving relatives and friends. Revelations 21:4 -" And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anyone. The former things have passed away." Henrietta never liked to say goodbye to anyone so in Henrietta's only way to leave someone she would always say "Later" so "Later Momma", UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

Sleep Mama sleep, It's time to go to sleep,
So close your eyes and rest your head, you must be tired now.

We've kissed your cheek and held your hand,
we must let you go now.

Sleep Mama sleep, It's time to go to sleep,
The angels are here and will keep you safe and warm,
They must carry you home now.

Sleep Mama sleep, It's time Mama?
You've gone to sleep now...
Sweet peaceful dreams, We Love You.
