UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

Those special memories of you,
 Will always bring a smile,
 If only we could have you back
 Just for a little while.
 Then we could sit and talk again
 Just like we used to do,
 You always meant so much to us
 And always will too.
 The fact that you're no longer here,
 Will always cause us pain,
 We'll try not to worry,
 Because an angel God has gained.
 So you rest now and be trouble free,
 We know you're smiling down on us to see.
 So it's not good-bye, but see you later,
 While getting caught up with the creator.
 So now that things come to an end,
 You save a place beside you...
 Until we meet again.

Anthony was preceded in death by his mother, Dessie Askew. Anthony is survived by one daughter, Shaovion Davis and his maternal sister, Gajarah Garrett, alongside with his father, a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and close friends.

Anthony D. Davis, 38 was born in Jackson, Mississippi on February 4, 1982. Growing up, he enjoyed playing football. He attended Paducah Tilghman High School. He later on discovered his passion for music which started off by playing the drums in church alongside his mother. Later in life he established his music career, opening up for major artists, recording music videos, spending countless time in the studio, and putting out various CDs and songs. Anthony was hardworking, determined, strong, intelligent, dedicated, and one of a kind. He always made something out of nothing and always wanted others around him to be the best versions of themselves.
