PSALM 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. <sup>2</sup> He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. <sup>3</sup> He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. <sup>4</sup> Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. <sup>5</sup> Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. <sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

AMEN

CLARENCE "CYDNEY" EDWARD EUBANKS, JR.

September 15, 1959 - January 18, 2021

Clarence "Cydney" Edward Eubanks, Jr. was the first of four children born to Clarence "Dan" Edward Eubanks, Sr. and Ruby Dean (Bradford) Eubanks on September 15, 1959 in Nashville, TN. He departed this life on January 18, 2021 in the hands of the savior whom he worshipped. At an early age, Clarence, commonly known as C.J., gave his life to Christ. He attended Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Lebanon, TN. He graduated from Lebanon High School in 1976 and went on to earn his bachelor's and master's degrees in Business Administration from Middle Tennessee State University.

To know him was to love him. C.J. was self-employed, owning a limousine service, operating A.S. Wharton Store alongside his brother James "Bubba" Eubanks. He went on to continue his father's business, Daddy and Sons Sanitation Service. Cooking was also one of his many hobbies.

C.J. later moved his membership to Higher Ground International Church. He was one of the church's original 12 members. As head usher, he often offered his assistance to the hospitality committee. When anyone entered the church, they were greeted with love and a warm smile. If anything was needed, C.J. was eager to lend a helping hand. He loved his church family.

His pastor, the Reverend Dr. Joseph Rice, better known as "P" was his friend, brother and teacher. One of C.J.'s most precious memories was talking on the phone to Dr. Rice. He was overjoyed by Dr. Rice telling him that he loved him.

C. J. never met a stranger. He was always willing and enthusiastic to extend his generosity to anyone he thought was in need. He continuously strived to put others before himself. Service was the core of his beliefs.

His genuine personality was magnetic and he had a heart of gold.

"You lived your life.
You will forever and always be remembered."

He was preceded in death by his father, Clarence "Dan" Edward Eubanks, Sr.; mother, Ruby Dean (Bradford) Eubanks; aunt, Hattie Brady; and uncle, Andrew Bradford.

Those left to cherish his memory include two sisters: Gayla (Glen) Brooks of Lebanon, TN and Mae (Stephen) Love of Chicago, IL; one brother, James Eubanks of Lebanon, TN; play brother, Timothy Frazier of Nashville, TN; companion, Gregory Burrell of Murfreesboro, TN; aunts: Nancy Stewart of Clarksville, TN, Alberta (Charles) McLemore of Hartsville, TN and Mary Reed of Nashville, TN; uncle, Johnny Bradford of Nashville, TN; his only niece, Leslie Courage-Searcy of Lebanon, TN; two nephews: Jerromy (Melinda) Brooks of Carthage, TN and Stephen Emmanuel Love of Chicago, IL; two great nieces: Tayla Courage of Lebanon, TN and Olivia Brooks of Carthage, TN and two great nephews: Terrell Brooks and Billy Drake Brooks of Carthage, TN; devoted cousins: Brenda Bryant of Nashville, TN, Michael Mooney of Nashville, TN, Renee Stewart White of Radcliffe, KY, Ellen Young-Bond of Nashville, TN and Kimberly Young-Bond of Atlanta, GA; three god children: Jasmine Bendermax, Corey Seay and Dewayne E. # MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared...Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone,
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds...Miss me but let me go. AMEN

*Remember not my fight for breath.
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell
Upon my death...*
BUT CELEBRATE MY LIFE.
