
AMELIA "CANDY" NEUBLE

July 17, 1961 - January 25, 2021

A WALK WITH AMELIA...

Amelia was born on July 17, 1961 at McFarland Hospital to the late Bobbie L. Neuble and Leonard Steverson. Born and raised in Lebanon, TN, Amelia soared through her educational years as well as worked throughout the city. At a young age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the Lebanon Church of God Sanctified under the leadership of the late Bishop Andrew J. Valentine.

Tough as nails, Amelia, but mostly known as "Aunt Candy" will be missed for many things. From taking in and caring for everyone to her stern looks and whoppings that she did not mind giving out.

She truly made her way into the hearts of many by feeding their souls. The kitchen was always open to the fed and unfed.

Amelia was preceded in death by her parents: Bobbie Neuble and Leonard Steverson; children: Jesse and Jessica Neuble; sisters: Patricia Jeanette, Cecelia Sweatt and Tessa Steverson.

Amelia leaves to mourn and cherish her memory to aunt Gloria Dye; uncle, John Harold and Jenny Neuble; children Allen Britton, Meshawn Neuble, Quinton and Mickel Whitley, Ericka Fitts and Antwan Head; sisters: Chloe Ann Neuble and Wanda Smith; brothers: Gregory Sweatt and Leonard Steverson, Jr. Also a host of nieces, nephews and extended family.
