

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO "JOE MOORE" FROM THE CREW

A DRILLER'S PRAYER

Lord, give me the tools to get the job done, keep my drill bit sharp and grease in my gun. Bless my mind with skill, should issues arise, so, I will be wiser than I realize. Provide me a never-ending supply of steel, while assuring my efforts shall be understood. Then, when the day is passed, Lord, allow me to rest, with the knowledge that I have given my best. Lord, help me, remind me, should I ever fail to remember, my job is a gift, New Year's through December. I work with my hands from sun up to sundown, with warmth on my back, I have no need to frown. Sometimes, the job may become too much to bear, but, still, I am humbled, because You are there. Lord, always be with me; help to keep me sound, secure my drill tracks, firmly on the ground, protect me from harm, as I travel along, but, most of all, Lord, be sure I am strong.

My ultimate goal is to provide for my home, so Lord, please be certain, wherever I roam, I give my heart, always, to all that I do, clanging and banging and swinging and whirring, this is the world of rock drilling. Cutting through rock with a big tough bit, until we reach where the place the cut sheets list. Cutting dynamite and lifting bags is a difficult task, you have to wear your hard hat and your own dust mask, and safety glasses to protect your eyes, from particles which from this work arise. Lift me to the highest high, as I sit in my old drill, I'll be at the rig for eternity thinking about my crew.

My Darling Brother Joseph,

You are always there when I needed you. You always picked me up when I fell. You stuck up for me when no one else would. I love you. I said a prayer to God to watch over you and I know he will because I asked him. You will be truly missed and I'll always have a special place in my heart for you.

Your Loving Sister, Mildred

Love my brother that always glow. Up and down, down and up. I love you Joe Moore so much. I Love You...I Love You...I Love You...

I Love You forever,
Your Sister, Thelma

Uncle Joe,

We will forever miss you. Every time we saw you, you always had a smile on your face. You came to see us on holidays and always gifted us with our favorite gift cards. You were an amazing uncle to us. We didn't want you to leave, but now you are in a better place. We love you and miss you.

Love,
Malia, Jaidyce, SáRi, and Jameice

*Joe,
The value of our friendship is beyond measurement. I'd pay anything to have you back. One more moment for one more memory. Saying goodbye this soon feels wrong, so instead I'll just say, "I love you" and I know that you're always with me.*

*Love Always,
Your BBF, Tink*

My Dear Sweet Joe,

Oh how I miss you so, so much already! Your sweet laugh, warm smile and gentle touch will forever be embedded in my heart. You loved me so big and so unconditionally! Moods, cats, dogs and all! There wasn't anything you wouldn't do to make me happy and I know God will comfort me in only the way he knows how. No goodbye's but I will see you later One Sweet Day.

I love you forever and always, Deann

Joseph,

Where do I start? I was born your niece and raised as your sister. There was nothing you couldn't ask of me and vice versa from you. I would give anything to hear you say "Duke, if you need me, call me and I love you". I was very proud of you beating that demand and taking back your life! Thank you for loving me, my girls, and being Ty's support system. You have left a void in our hearts. We love you, but God loves and needed you more. This isn't "Good-bye" but see you later!

Love always, Duke

Jesus as you are listening in your home above, would you go and find our dad and give him all our love.

Christopher, Shawndrick, Iesha, Cinnamon, Diamond and Deshawn

God grant me the SERENITY to accept the things I cannot change: COURAGE to change the things I can: and WISDOM to know the difference.

In you I've always seen myself. Every story I hear about you shows me that we are more alike than I've ever known. It's like looking in a mirror. I wish we could have had deeper conversations so I could learn everything you truly had to bear, but rest easy pops. I promise you my brothers and sisters will be good. You've changed me in many ways and know I'm going to elevate even "Moore" for my siblings. I mean that's what we do...right? Show love and give love even when it's not wanted. No matter the trial or tribulation you gave "Moore" of an effort to correct your wrongs and that's all that has ever mattered to me. I'll continue to grow your legacy. Just when times get hard, and I'm not confident in my abilities, please remind me who I am.

Love forever "Moore",
Your first born, Chris

Daddy,
I love you so much. We had so much good memories together. I wish we could make more good memories, but it was your time to go.

R.I.P DAD.

Deshawn

Daddy,

I love you and miss you. I am proud of how strong you were. You will live on in me. I will continue to make you proud. God wanted you back and we are not supposed to understand but, I wish you were still here. R.I.P. Daddy. I will never forget you.

Love always, Diamond

My dad was a good father and grandfather who loved his family. I'm going to miss your phone calls checking on me and my kids. You are loved and will be missed, it's not going to be the same without you.

Love,
Your Baby Girl

Mo,

Thank you for coming into my life and being a father to me. You never said that's my son's sister, you always said that's my daughter. Thanks for taking care of us when mama was sick and always taking care of her. I'm glad you got to see me graduate and learn how to drive. They tell me I drive like you, "FLYING". I truly will miss you.

Love Always, Cinni Minni
