RUTH L. TURNER REFLECTIONS

Ruth L. Turner was born September 17, 1961 in Nashville, TN to Mother Rose Turner Ramsey. She transitioned to eternal life on January 31, 2021 at Metropolitan Nashville Public School System.

Ruth was known affectionately by her smile, witty personality and straightforwardness. She never met a stranger. Ruth accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age at St. Matthews Missionary Baptist Church, which was a proud accomplishment in her life. She would visit as frequently as she could. You always knew and felt her presence.

She is most recently a well-known person in Madison, TN by all. She was a faithful distributor of The Contributor newspaper.

Ruth is preceded in death by her mother, Mother Rose Turner Ramsey, Grandmother Mary Holt and Grandfather George Turner.

She leaves to cherish her everlasting memories, children, Lakesha Farmer, Shawnda Turner-Capps and Charlise Turner, all of Nashville, TN. Grandchildren, KeAnthoine Farmer, Larry Farmer, Mike Newsome, Montria Phillips, Jeremiah Farmer, Lajonathan Farmer, Chareyana Davis, Calvin Osborne, Makieya Turner and Jalene Capps; Two sisters, Betty (Pastor Irvin) Jackson of Nashville, TN, and Brenda Williams of Chicago, IL; Brother, Joseph (Geraldine) Turner of Nashville; Aunts, uncles, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other family members.

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

BY FRANCES & KATHLEEN COELHO

God saw you getting tired

With tearful eyes we watched you

And a cure was not to be

As you slowly slipped away

So he put His arms around you

And though we loved you dearly

And whispered "Come to me."

We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating. Your tired hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us. He only takes the best
