

Until We Meet Again...

To say goodbye is not the end. To all my family and friends, for life goes on. You must endure, for death for all of us is sure. Remember all the good times, the memories we've shared...the precious jewels of laughter, the tender love and care. I found my resting place. God's peace surrounds my soul. Let love abound in all your hearts, Let heaven be your goal.

Until We Meet Again.

Brandon Jerrell Farr

APRIL 25, 1989 - FEBRUARY 11, 2021

Brandon Jerrell Farr was born in Nashville, TN April 25, 1989. God in his infinite wisdom deemed it necessary to withdraw Brandon from our midst on February 11, 2021.

Brandon was preceded in death by his grandparents: Jessie Mable Farr, MP Farr, Sr. and Martha Sneed; great grandparents: Robert and Mary Randolph; Randolph great uncles: Felix, Harold, James, Robert Allen, Alvin and Tolbert; Farr aunts and uncles: Charles, MP, Royfield, Mary Berry and Ramona.

He grew up in Lavergne, TN where he graduated from Lavergne High School in 2008. Brandon loved cheerleading and was an All-Star Cheerleader for Premier All-Star. He attended Tennessee State University and the University of Arkansas. Pine Bluff and was a member of their Cheerleading squads. He attended the Art Institute of Nashville and later relocated to Ottawa, IL where he worked in the hospitality industry. Brandon enjoyed cooking, music and being with his friends and family. He was a member of the Olive Branch Church. Brandon was such a loving person who always had a smile on his face no matter what he was going through. He never met a stranger and he lived his life to the fullest.

The legacy and memory Brandon leaves will be cherished by his parents, Jesse and Brenda Farr; devoted and loving sister, Jessica Farr; grandmother, Willie "Nana" Elizabeth Sneed; grandfathers, James A. Sneed; aunts: Deyonda Sneed (Ricardo), Pottie Farr, Annie Farr and Gloria Farr; uncles: JC Sneed (Leslie) and Tony Farr; great aunts: Sallie Lyons-Camp and Henrietta Sanders; god-parents: Keith and Anne Figgins; and god-sister, Keionne (Mario) Holder; god-brothers: Keion and Keith, Jr. Figgins; fur-nephew, Benjamin; devoted cousin, Brianna Weakley and a host of other cousins, family and friends too numerous to mention by name.

Son,

From the day that I gave birth to you, your little happy smile brought me joy. You were a pleasant baby that grew into a comedian of a child. You were always a joker and truly loved by me and a host of other people. Your delightful spirit and joy will certainly be missed here. Rest peacefully in our Savior's arms until that day when we shall meet again.

Love always,
Your Mama!

Son,

When it is said that the Christians are temporary residents on this earth, it is because we are waiting for a greater Glory to come and the return of Jesus Christ. Because of this heavenly assurance we have, we shouldn't fear this day. We should rejoice because Christ is coming for all of us. Hearing in the Glory spoken of the Epistles on this day we will be reunited with fellow believers who have passed on and we will take on our immortal bodies. We shall see you again someday son. R.I.P.

Love Daddy

So Brandon, they asked me to do a "tribute", but I don't want to do that. I told you before, that I will always be with you and now, you will always be with me. I'm so proud of you and proud to call you my brother. I love you more than I will ever be able to express in words. I'm coming up there with you in time, I just gotta handle some things down here first. See you soon "brudder".

Thanks
Were Not

A bouquet of beautiful memories, sprayed with a million tears. I wish God could have spared you, if just a few more years. We hold you close within our hearts, and there you will remain. To walk with us throughout our lives, UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

Rest in peace dear Brandon, and know that Nana love you so much;
GOD HAD YOUR WINGS READY, BUT OUR HEARTS WERE NOT.
