

REMEMBER OUR Love

I was chosen today;
I'm learning to fly,
the world took me away,
but please don't you cry.

And I chose you today,
to try and be strong,
so please don't you cry,
and don't say that I'm gone.

When you're feeling alone
just remember our love,
I'm up near the stars,
looking down from above.

Remember our love,
in a moment you'll see,
that I'm still here beside you,
when you're thinking of me.

THE LIFE STORY

of

Dr. Tamara Gravely Griffin

December 10, 1973 - July 31, 2021

Tamara was born and raised in Connecticut, and attended Hood College in Frederick, MD. It was there that Dr. Griffin decided to pursue a career in Endodontistry. She received her Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry from the University of Connecticut and went on for additional specialty training at Texas A&M School of Dentistry. After earning both a Certificate in Endodontics and a Master of Science in Education for Health Care Professionals, Dr. Griffin taught endodontics as an Assistant Professor at the University of Tennessee School of Dentistry. She also served as the Chair of Endodontics at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, TN.

Leaving the world of academia for private practice, she worked at Sheats Endodontic Group for several years and recently accepted a position at Aspen Dental to have more time with her family especially her beautiful daughters, Ella and Victoria, the loves of her life, her reason, her why.

Dr. Griffin served as the President of the Southern Women's Dental Study Club. She was a dedicated member of numerous community organizations. Dr. Griffin enjoyed running and Pure Barre workouts.

Tamara was a loving genuine soul with a contagious smile that would light up any room. She loved hard and big. She was a wife, a mother, a daddy's girl, a sister, a friend, a mentor, an absolute blessing to anyone she came in contact with.

Tamara is survived by her husband, Jamel; daughters: Ella and Victoria Griffin; sisters: Carla Woodard, Marcia Shannon and Valdina Gravely. Tamara was blessed to have a very devoted aunt, Evelyn Bailey and mother-in-law, Helen Griffin. She is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Tamara was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence J. Gravely and Virginia Gravely.

The family would like to thank The Sheats Family for their continued support and dedication to Tamara.

Endless Love

Thank you for your endless love, that helped me through each day, and thank you for the memories that will never fade away. You're the woman I loved and was proud that you were my wife, and everyday in some small way, I will celebrate your life. As long as memories last, you will stay in my heart.

*Always,
Jamel*

"Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."

Once more we come with burdened hearts,
Once more with mournful sighs;
Once more we come with helpless hands,
Once more with tearful eyes.

Another useful faithful life, has quickly passed away,
We've come to pay our last respects, to Tamara today.
Her work is finished here below, life's weary task is done,
But let us say with cheerful hearts, "Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."

She lived a life of usefulness, through all her blessed years,
She faced this hard world with a smile, and quickly dried her tears.
She fought life's battles womanly, until her race was won,
So let us say with cheerful hearts,

"Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."

Ella and Victoria
