Dear Daddy,

It is going to be hard trying to go on living without you here, not being able to hear your voice or sit back and have one of our conversations. I wish this wasn't real and I still don't want to believe it. I remember our last conversation, and like usual, it hit home for me like it always do. I will always cherish the time and the memories that we have shared. I'm really going to miss being able to feel your hug because your hugs always made things better. I'm going to miss your smile and your laughter. I want to tell you that I'm going to be ok, but right now... I can't. I miss you so much and I love you.
