REMEMBER OUR LOVE

I was chosen today;
I'm learning to fly,
The world took me away,
But please don't you cry.

And I chose you today,
To try and be strong,
So please don't you cry,
And don't say that I'm gone.

When you're feeling alone
Just remember our love,
I'm up near the stars,
Looking down from above.

Remember our love,
In a moment you'll see,
That I'm still here beside you,
When you're thinking of me.

"Dot"

When We Are Gone

*When we come to the end of our journey, and we travel our last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that we ever frowned, and remember only our smile.
Forget unkind words we have spoken; remember some good we have done
Forget that we ever had heartache, and remember we've had loads of fun.
Forget that we've stumbled and blundered, and sometimes fell by the way;
Remember we've fought some hard battles, and won, ere the close of the day.*

"CROSSING OVER"

Oh please don't feel guilty,
It was just my time to go,
I see you are still feeling sad,
And tears just seem to flow.

We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not for many years,
I don't want you to keep crying,
You are shedding so many tears.

Believe when you say my name;
I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.

But I will still send you messages,
And hope you'll understand,
That when your time comes to
"Cross Over" ...
I'll be there to take your hand.

"Frank"

MOTHER DOROTHY MCDANIEL

July 11, 1938 - October 12, 2021

Mother Dorothy McDaniel was born July 11, 1938 to the late Abel and Ruby Woods Garner, as the youngest of eight, in Sheffield, AL. She was known as "Dot" to her family and friends. Dorothy accepted Christ at an early age at the First Baptist Church of 20th Street under the late Reverend Yarborough.

She attended Sterling High School in Sheffield, AL and received her GED and certification for Garment Alteration after relocating to Harlan, Ky.

While in Harlan, Kentucky she met and married Silas

McDaniel Jr. She lived there for over 25 years as a dietician and homemaker. She worked very hard to have what she wanted for her family. She began her journey as a mother figure to many around her. She was known to feed, shelter and help those in her neighborhood.

Dorothy continued this journey of helping others after finally relocating to Nashville, TN. She devoted her life to Christ and begin serving the Lord through Greater Life Church of God in Christ and New Beginning Ministries, respectively. She began to be known as "Mother McDaniel" and "The Candy Lady" throughout Nashville for her business savvy. She always had a kind word for all and was one of the sweetest people you would ever meet in life. She would constantly witness to others about Christ and quoted Psalms 84:11 – "For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly." She also advised, "If you put God first he will supply all of your needs", which is what she lived by. She had a natural love for cooking which made her the best cook you would have ever encountered. In her later years she continued her love of cooking, traveling with family, virtual worship and sharing her wisdom on social media. Mother McDaniel has left a beautiful legacy and she will be truly missed by all.

She was preceded in death by husband, Silas McDaniel Jr.; children: Freddie McDaniel, Judy Garrett and Franklin McDaniel; parents: Abel and Ruby Woods Garner; siblings: Ruby Mae Saffold, Louise Lawrence, John H. Garner, Abel (Abe) Garner Jr., Freddie Lee Garner and Frank James Garner.

She leaves to love and cherish her memory, her children: Silas (Pam) McDaniel, Lillie Mae (Donnie) Blaine, Kenneth (Tonya) McDaniel and Melody McDaniel; special grandchild: Jacqueline West McDaniel; grandchildren: Stevie (Susan) Blaine, Melissa Blaine, Crystal Blaine, Kenneth Blaine, Corey McDaniel, Isaiah McDaniel and Marshea Coplen; great grandchildren: Devin Blaine, Jazzlyn Blaine, Isaiah Blaine, Donovan Montanaro, Nate Montanaro, Rihanna Montanaro, Maleek Blaine and Messiah Coplen; sister: Airlene Riggins and a host of nieces, nephews cousins and friends.

FRANKLIN DELANEY MCDANIEL

November 2, 1959 - October 16, 2021

Franklin Delaney McDaniel was born November 2, 1959 to the late Silas and Dorothy Garner McDaniel, as one of seven children, in Harlan Kentucky. He was affectionately known as "Frank", "Frankie" or "Tank" by family and friends.

Frank attended Holy Trinity Catholic School and Cawood High School in Harlan, KY. At Cawood, Frank was a standout athlete in both basketball and football. He was a two-time All-State fullback and tight end. He graduated from Cawood in 1977 with offers from Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, Notre Dame and Missouri, to name a few. However, he decided to play for the University of Kentucky, to be close to his family, especially his mom. After a knee injury halted his football career, he joined his mom and moved to Nashville, TN.

In Nashville, Frank worked for KenCo Distributors for many years and most recent he was a longtime employee of Hayward Industries. Like his mother, he joined Greater Life Church of God in Christ and was baptized under the pastorate of Elder V. Sweeting in 1995. He continued his journey of faith and hard work to become a great son, father, brother and friend. He loved God, sports, all genres of music, classic and luxury cars, food and especially his family. His favorite bible verse was always kept around him, as he continued to witness to others through his final days. Revelations 3:20, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me". Frank never met a stranger and made friends with everyone. He will be missed by all that knew him.

Frank was preceded in death by parents: Silas and Dorothy Garner McDaniel; brother: Freddie McDaniel; sister, Judy Garrett; aunts: Ruby Mae Saffold, Louise Lawrence, Dorothy McDaniel and Geneva McDaniel; uncles: Abel (Abe) Garner Jr., Freddie Lee Garner, John H. Garner, Frank Garner, and John Mack.

He leaves to cherish his memory, children: Jacqueline West McDaniel, Cory McDaniel and Isaiah McDaniel; grandchildren: Josiah, Jordan and Journey; brothers: Silas (Pam) McDaniel and Kenneth (Tonya) McDaniel; sisters: Lille Mae (Donnie) Blaine and Melody McDaniel; aunt: Airlene Riggins; special friend: Vickie Hamilton, former spouse: Linda Mitchell and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

FUTURE WILDCAT GRUBBER — Frank McDaniel, Caswood High School's all-state fullback and tight end, signed a Southern Conference football letter-of-intent with the University of Kentucky Saturday afternoon. Also present were his mother, Mrs. Dorothy McDaniel, Caswood principal John Howard (to McDaniel's right) and state Senator Brett Ed Puller. (Staff Photo)

Once more we come with burdened hearts, once more with mournful sighs;
Once more we come with helpless hands, once more with tearful eyes.
Another useful faithful life, has quickly passed away,
We've come to pay our last respects, to Dorothy and Frank today.
Her work is finished here below, life's weary task is done,
But let us say with cheerful hearts, "Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."
She lived a life of usefulness, through all her blessed years,
She faced this hard world with a smile, and quickly dried her tears.
She fought life's battles womanly, until her race was won,
So let us say with cheerful hearts,
"Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."

The LORD is a REFUGE FOR THE OPPRESSED, a
STRONGHOLD in times of trouble.

- Psalm 9:9 -
