Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give at that day...and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. II Timothy 4:8

Well Big Bro,

The Good man upstairs decided your duties here on earth are complete and has called you to rest.

I'm gonna miss our calls and our recent FaceTime calls. I was always able to discuss things with you and feel better. I remember how happy I was when I saw you at Lackland AFB in Texas. I realized you had made up your mind to try to make a better life for yourself. You did just that. You had a good career, raised a beautiful family and retired a happy man.

I am so proud of how you lived your life, the love you had for your family and us (your siblings). I am sad that you're no longer with us in the flesh but happy you are no longer in pain and resting in peace. I love you Sam, you'll always be in my heart and I will always remember carrying you around on my hip.

God Bless, Rest in Peace,

“Sister”

TO MY FAMILY...
CELEBRATE MY LIFE!

Softly from the shadows, there came a gentle call,
I closed my eyes and went to sleep and quietly left you all.
My chapter has been closed, my page has been turned,
My life was well lived, my rest well earned.
Remember not the fight for breath;
Remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death but,
CELEBRATE MY LIFE!

To my husband

*Thank you for your endless love, that will help me through each day, and thank you for the memories that will never fade away. You're the man I loved and was proud to be your wife, and everyday in some small way,
I will Celebrate Your Life. As long as memories last,
you will stay in my heart.*

*Your loving wife,
Ethel*
