DAVID BAXTER KING

December 21, 1954 - January 22, 2022

David Baxter King was born to Reggie and Lula King of Elmwood, Tennessee on December 21, 1954. He was raised in Elmwood and graduated from Smith County High School in 1973, where he loved and excelled in football. He also loved talking to people, and would often start up a conversation with anyone within two feet of him. He was a good friend to many. David was baptized at the age of twelve by Rev. Artie Winfree, then pastor of Mount Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church of Elmwood. David deeply loved his grandchildren, Shamarion Whitfield, Akeelah Moore, and Lorenzo Miller, Jr. They were the apple of his eye.

Preceding him in death are his parents: Reggie and Lula King; brothers: Reggie King, Jr., Doyle King and Kenneth King; sister, Jennie Bell Stewart, and foster sister, Elizabeth King.

Left behind to cherish his memory, his daughter, Jacquelyn Brittany King of Nashville, TN; brother, Eddie (Yolanda) King of Chattanooga, TN; sister, Ollie Montine (Garry) Smith of Stonewall, TN; foster brother, Jimmy (Patricia) Crittenden of Carthage, TN; brother-in-law, Thomas Stewart of Elmwood, TN and sister-in-law, Marsha King of McMinnville, TN. Also left to miss and remember him are a host of devoted friends, especially, James Harold King, Gary Sadler, Byron Evans, Cleo King, Loretta Hogan, niece Anne Waggoner, nephew Thomas Smith, and the staff and former roommate at Signature Nursing Home in Madison, TN, Robert McNeal.
