

Celebration of Life

SARAH ESTELLA LOWE

March 4, 1947 - September 6, 2021

*Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.*

SARAH ESTELLA LOWE

March 4, 1947 - September 6, 2021

Sarah Estella Lowe was born on March 4, 1947. She was the second of seven siblings to the late Howard A. and Mary Britt Dorsey Lowe. She transitioned on the morning of September 6, 2021.

Sarah received her K-12th grade schooling from Metro Nashville Public Schools and graduated from Cameron High School in 1965. She attended Tennessee A&I University for two years in the field of nursing.

At an early age, Sarah accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was a member of Watson Grove Baptist Church where she served on the Usher Board. Sarah later attended services at Schrader Lane Church of Christ with her family and her son, Carlos Lowe, and Mount Zion with her sister, Yvonne Lowe Bradford.

Sarah worked at Saint Thomas Hospital as a Nurse Technician for 30 years and after retirement worked as In-Home Caregiver and as a nutritionist with Metro Nashville Public Schools.

Sarah was preceded in death by her parents: Howard A. and Mary Britt Dorsey Lowe and her brother, Howard Russell Lowe.

She was loved and will be cherished by her son, Carlos Lamont (Denise) Lowe; grandchildren: Ariel and Carlos, Jr.; siblings: Rose Mary Lowe, Barbara Lowe, Gwendolyn Bradford, George (Vickie) Lowe, Renee (Terrance) Powell; nieces and nephews: Delta Lowe, Diondrea (Joseph) Jackson, Maya and Terran Powell, Hope, George Jr. and Toya Lowe; great niece and nephews: Britt Lusk and Josef and Jordan Jackson.
