A DAY OF REJOICING FOR

A portrait of a woman with curly hair, wearing a leopard print top. Below the portrait is a bunch of blue roses.

SALLY MARY RANDOLPH
Lyons Camp

ALPHA: August 22, 1941
OMEGA: September 29, 2021

Will always be remembered as:
"GRAN SALLY"

REMEMBER OUR LOVE

I was chosen today;
I'm learning to fly,
The world took me away,
But please don't you cry.

And I chose you today,
To try and be strong,
So please don't you cry,
And don't say that I'm gone.

When you're feeling alone
Just remember our love,
I'm up near the stars,
Looking down from above.

Remember our love,
In a moment you'll see,
That I'm still here beside you,
When you're thinking of me.

*Momma, Gran Sally,
Sally Mai, Aunt Sally...*

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile, that she's not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to,
She'd hope that you would carry on, the way you always do.
So talk about the good times, and the ways you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word might sometime say,
Will suddenly recapture, a time, an hour, a day;
That brings her back as clearly, as though she was still here,
And fills you with the feelings, that says that she is near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart,
And they will live forever, safely locked within your heart.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Sally Mary Randolph Lyons Camp would like to graciously express their sincere appreciation for all the calls, text messages, emails, monetary gifts, food, and other acts of kindness shown during our time of preparing to let go of our loved one. We would like to express special thanks to her sisters, Willie Snead and Henrietta Sanders, granddaughter, Cyntrece Moore and niece, Perdita Scales for their untiring dedication of your time to her care and comfort. Always look for her in the people she loved because love doesn't die...people do. Continue to share her in a smile, laughter and what she left us...love. Until all of us whose life she touched pass away...Sally's spirit will be able to live on. Blessings to all!

-THE FAMILY-

Every picture tells a story

SHE SLEEPS as we tell a short version of the life we knew of our beloved mother, sister, grandmother, aunt and friend...

SALLY MARY RANDOLPH LYONS CAMP

August 22, 1941 - September 29, 2021

"Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

Sally Mary Randolph Lyons Camp, lovingly and will always be remembered as "Gran Sally" was born to Robert Felix Randolph and Mary Elizabeth Goodman Randolph on August 22, 1941. She was the third child of nine children born to their union.

She departed this earthly life surrounded by family with love, laughter and lasting memories that are being cherished forever on September 29, 2021.

Sally was married to Samuel M. Lyons for 32 years and to this union six children were born. After death did them part, God sent her a second chance at love, Dr. Willie E. Camp. He stepped in and became a providing father and grandfather for her children and grandchildren in the absence of their natural father and grandfather. They lived a happy life and were married for 8 years until death did them part.

Sally received her education at Gladeview School in Dilton and at Holloway High. She was employed with Samsonite for many years and later employed at Trinidad Benham but was fully retired at the time of her death.

Sally was a member of Prosperity Missionary Baptist Church since the late 1940's and a lifelong member since childhood. She was baptized by Rev. Harry Alexander and continued her spiritual walk under leaderships of Pastor John Oscar Jordan and Pastor Odie Lawrence. Sally was a woman of few words but of final words...once said...then have it your way. Sally was known for her gift of cooking cakes and pies...really anything, but mainly German Chocolate Cake, Strawberry Cake and Egg Pies but definitely not limited to. She spent time teaching her granddaughters to make some of her special recipes so her legacy could carry on.

Sally loved her morning talks with her two sisters as they watched "The Price Is Right" game show and help the contestants win the prizes. To interfere with her during her favorite shows of "The Bold and The Beautiful", "Young and the Restless" and Wheel of Fortune was a no-no! She always cared about her family and just wanted everyone to be alright. She loved the Lord and exemplified it through her everyday life. Her presence will be missed but the memories will always have a place that no one can take away.

Her children left to live out her legacy and cherish her love for our lifetime: Retired CSM Samuel I. (Pamela) Lyons, Gail (Doug) Jordan, Cynthia (Edgar) Wilson, Gabriel (Danyale) Lyons, Veronica Lyons, and Apostle Terrance (Angela) Lyons; two dear, devoted and dedicated sisters: Willie Sneed (Henry McKnight) and Henrietta Randolph (Reggie Sanders). She was blessed with five generations which include a myriad of grandchildren, great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.

Her legacy continues...

Her relationship with all of her in-laws was very mutually respected. They include sisters-in-law: Fannie Randolph, Gail Randolph, Margaret Randolph, Deborah Randolph, Willie Fowler, Frances Harris and Fannie Carson; one brother-in-law, Jimmie L. Lyons (who passed the day after she did, September 30); dedicated friends whom she loved dearly and could depend on for many things were: Laboria Alexander, Margaret Dixon, Martha Bigsby, Deborah Randolph, Lillian King and Margaret Randolph; favored bonus son and neighbor, Doug (Tong) Conley; and a long list too many to mention by name of nieces, nephews, cousins and other friends. She will definitely be missed by her fur baby, her friend, her daily companion, "Sheba".

TOGETHER AGAIN

A reunion occurred in heaven this week, of the sweetest and most joyful kind,
As mom's spirit moved beyond this earth released from her mortal life she left behind.

And what a reunion it must have been! A joy beyond our conceiving,
When mom met dad in heaven again, ending her dignified grieving.

And we are certain dad is still holding mom's hand, while she cherishes each moment by his side,
And they're experiencing the joy of being together again, catching up on the time they were denied.

We are confident they are also looking over us, hoping this happiness will lessen our pain
As we contemplate the joy that they finally feel, now that they are together again.

And though we'll miss them terribly, and will long for them with deepest grief;
We are reminded that love is more powerful than death, and this knowledge gives us comfort and peace.
For we know this isn't the only reunion, someday we'll be called back to be with them,

For life can lead us to greater happiness, with the Lord and our loved ones in heaven.

So although we'll miss our mom profoundly, our grief is somewhat lessened,
For we are comforted knowing that she led a good life, and she and dad are now together in heaven.

O nce more we come with burdened hearts, once more with mournful sighs;
Once more we come with helpless hands, once more with tearful eyes.

Another useful faithful life, has quickly passed away,
We've come to pay our last respects, to our mom today.
Her work is finished here below, life's weary task is done,
But let us say with cheerful hearts, "Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."
She lived a life of usefulness, through all her blessed years,
She faced this hard world with a smile, and quickly dried her tears.
She fought life's battles womanly, until her race was won,

So let us say with cheerful hearts,
"Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done."
