Perhaps you sang a lovely song,
Perhaps you said a silent prayer,
Or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared tasty food,
Or maybe furnished or drove a car,
Perhaps you traveled many miles,
Or watched the house for a little while.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much Whatever the part.

Sometimes I just sit quietly reflecting for a while imagining your voice, your face your warm and loving smile For it's so lovely to recall the happy times we had when you played such a special role as both Husband and Dad
And at this very special time I only wish you knew that I'd give all the world today for one more hour with you But I still have my memories and since we've been apart it comforts me so much to know that you're right here in my heart

A beautiful memory dearer than gold,
Of a father whose worth can never be told.
There's a place in my heart, no one can fill I Miss You Dad, Always Will.
Love your Daughter, Anita
