ONE LAST REQUEST

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle; for it was God's battle to lose or win;
Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best;
Just say I tried to do what's right
To give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do,
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due—
Please don't give me flowers, or talk in real hushed tones,
Don't be concerned about me, know I'm well with God,
I've made it home.

Don't talk about what could have been, it's all over and it's done
Just see all my family's needs, especially the little ones;
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint,
I've done some good, I've done some wrong—
So use all your paint.

Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark.
In fact, don't put me down on canvas, just paint me in your heart.

Don't just remember the good times, don't remember all the bad,
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have ONE LAST REQUEST,
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done,
And share the love I left!
