

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE TO MY MARINE

1952 · CURTIS FOSTER WHARTON · 2022

Isn't my baby handsome. Curtis, my love, has left this world to rest in my Sweet Jesus' arms departed on February 23, 2022. Once a Marine, always a Marine, my baby's words. He slept and rode in the car like a statue, I said, 'Relax, you are out of the Marines. His head saluted the ceiling, I would wake him and say, 'Relax your neck, Baby'; until I realized that him, the Marine, was fixed for life. In the car his spine stayed just as straight. Never did I see him relax his spine and sit sloppy or slumped over. I would ask him, 'Does your back ever hurt?' He never thought anything about it, so he was trained to his bones. My Marine Curtis Wharton proudly served this country. He was very sad not to be able to serve 30 years, which was his intention, but his legs couldn't handle 5 miles anytime the sergeant called for it, sometimes at 3 or 4 in the morning. I give honor to the Marines, they worked hard trying to keep him fixed as a Marine. The paperwork from his doctors was stacked very high, then they discovered he had diabetes as his main trouble at the age of 29. They tried hard to keep a young, tall, eager young man as a Marine. So they finally had to give.

Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I must embark...

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

Don't think of him as gone away, his journey's just begun,
 Life holds so many facets, this earth was only one.
 Just think of him as resting, from the sorrows and the tears,
 In a place of warmth and comfort,
 Where there are no days or years.

Think how he must be wishing, that we could know today,
 How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.
 And think of him as living, in the hearts of those he touched,
 For nothing loved is ever lost, and he was loved so much.

Memories
 are a way of holding onto the ones we love
