Pastor Gerald Davis, Eulogist

Interment: Wilson County Memorial Gardens

Jaelin Rashad Davis was born February 7, 1997 to Demetria Davis and Clayton Nunley. He was raised in Lebanon, Tennessee and often referred to himself as a “Country Boy” because he spent so much of his childhood with his grandparents in the Tuckers Crossroads area. He departed from this life on June 12, 2012 at the tender age of 15.

Jaelin accepted Christ into his life at the age of 9. He often looked up to his grandfather, Pastor Elder Gerald Davis, as one of his main role models in life. He loved carrying the qualities and characteristics of being a good Christian. Jaelin held a special place in his heart for his “Mama”, maternal grandmother, Barbara Davis. He had a very close relationship with his grandparents. He was a very devoted son, brother, team mate, and friend. He impacted the lives of everyone he knew.

From kindergarten to eighth grade, Jaelin attended Tuckers Crossroads Elementary. He then proudly became a Lebanon High Blue Devil. Throughout his educational journey, Jaelin actively participated in Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) as well as, basketball and football, for both his school teams and various community teams. He excelled academically in his studies. Jaelin was very determined to work hard and never give up, and positively motivated others to have the same work ethic.

Jaelin leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Demetria Davis; father, Clayton Nunley; sisters, Jayla Davis & Jaiya Apple; brother, Kentez Burford; grandparents, Pastor Gerald & Barbara Davis and Roy & Betty Nunley; aunts, Jamila Davis, Monique (Matt Madigan) Davis, Carolyn (De’Quan) Rhodes, & Sonda (Stevie) Steverson; uncles, Gerald (Brittany Hawn) Davis, Jr., Prentice (Andrea) Davis, & Roy Nunley; a very devoted friend/cousin, Taye Davis, a host of other relatives including great aunts, uncles, and cousins; and very special family friends, Ashley Roby, Timmichael Gaddes, and Jody Spears.

Jaelin Rashad Davis was a precious angel that worked hard to lead others to Christ. He always carried himself as a respectable and mannerable peacemaker among everyone. He was a special person that always had a few kind and encouraging words to those in need. Many often say he could light up the room with just a simple smile.

He will be greatly missed by the entire community, but especially his family, friends, team mates, and coaches.

Two shining eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.”*
