Lelia Mae Ballenger

Lelia Mae Ballenger was born on October 1, 1918 to the late Axom and Mattie Ballenger of Lebanon, Tennessee. She was the third of nine children. "Aunt Lelia" as she was affectionately called departed this life of January 11, 2013 at Cedars Healthcare Center.

She professed her hope in Christ at an early age. She is a member of the Garden of Prayer Tabernacle. She resided in Louisville, KY under the care of her sisters, and then later moved back to Tennessee in 1992.

She loved going to church and to the Senior Citizen Center until her health failed. She enjoyed singing and talking about her loved ones.

She is preceded in death by her siblings. She leaves to cherish her memories: nieces, nephews, cousins, and church members. Special friends: Margaret Taylor and Terry Haute.

Lelia departed this life to dwell in God's kingdom. She will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her best. Think not in terms of sadness, for she has gone home to a place where there is no suffering or sadness.
