And when the winds and rains came, She protected me enough; But not too much, she knew this day would come And I would need to stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example, Always taught me right from wrong; To be a woman of good moral character Because one day she would be gone.

I am My Mother's Garden
I am her legacy,
And I hope today she feels the love she gave,
Reflected back from me.

A MESSAGE TO MOMMA:

Momma,

Words can't begin to express my pain right now. Honestly, I don't know if I will ever be able to express what I'm feeling now. I knew deep in my heart you were sick, a lot sicker than you would admit. I talked to you just an hour before you left me and you were still concerned about me. Our last words will forever be burned in my heart...you said, "Where are you?", I replied, "Outside Chattanooga"". You then said "Please don't speed and Brandi, I love you." My simple response, "I won't and I love you too." If only I had realized it was our final call, I would have said so much more. Momma, you were my rock, my backbone, my friend, my best friend...we shared everything!

Love forever and always, Brandi

OM MAR

When momma said NO, Aunt Bern ("Bebbie") said YES...

Bebbie,

There are so many things going through my mind right now, that makes writing this letter extremely hard. With the help of the Lord, am going to do it for you. want to thank God for putting ou in my life. You have been so many things to me and my family. I have depended on you all of my life. You never said no, you never gave up on me, you were always there. I want to say thank you from the bottom of my heart. I always looked up to you. Your strength was unshakable. Your determination was unstoppable. Your courage was unmovable. And I say thank you. Everybody who knew you knew that you were truly the rock of the family. We all leaned on you. Well Bebbie, I am going to have to stand now and be the man that I know you will be proud of. From my heart, you will never be forgotten. We lost a jewel but heaven gained an angel. In closing, through all of my good and bad, you always loved me and I love you back.

Lovingly Submitted, Joe Rockhead (Mark)
