His Life and Legacy...

The Life of Brother Perry O'Neal White, Sr. began on April 10, 1926 and spanned over eighty-five (85) years. He was born to the late Magellan White and Willie Neal White. He was preceded in death by his wife: Helen B. White, parents: Magellan and Willie Neal White, brothers: Alfred, Lonale, and Freddie Paul White, sisters: Mary Helen Williams, Madora Haynie, and Lenora Bethea. Mr. White received his education in the Wilson County School System. He was a graduate of the Wilson County Training School. He was very proud of the fact that he was the only male graduate in his senior class.

Bro. Perry was a lifelong member of the Market Street Church of Christ. He loved doing things in and around the church. He will always be remembered for being the Sunday School Teacher for the teenage boy class. He loved and looked forward to the Vacation Bible School Picnic at the Cedars of Lebanon Park.

He was employed and retired from Ford Glass Plant following a thirty-three (33) year tenure.

He looked forward to traveling around the United States with his wife. He and his wife were married for fifty-six (56) until her passing on December 27, 2010. Mr. White loved to spend time with his wife. He loved family, fishing, planting fruit trees, and gardening.

Mr. White's legacy continues on. He leaves to cherish his legacy, his daughter: Constance (Donald) Bradley; Sons: Perry O. White, Jr., Duane (Catherine) White, Anthony (Tammie) White, David (Michele) White, and Magellan (Tatanisha) White II. Grandchildren: Duane Jr., Raquel, Nicole, Tabitha, Tara, Tangela, Trevor, Joshua, Jacob, Jaellan, Ryan White. Sisters: Lucille (Fred) McKinley and Jimmy Dean White-Hill both of Nashville, TN. Brother-in-laws: Robert Williams and Willie E. Figgins. Sister-in-laws: Catherine White and Edwina White. Family was so important to him that he would take many pictures for remembrance.

*I'm gonna trade my earthly home for a better one, bright and fair. Christ left to prepare a mansion for His children in the air. I'll join that land where tears nor sorrows can be found,
And I'll receive my mansion, robe and crown.*
