Life's Clock

*The clock of life is wound but once, and no man has the power,
To tell just when the hands will stop, at late or early hour.*

*To lose one's wealth is sad indeed, to lose one's health is more,
To lose one's soul is such a loss, as no man can restore.*

*The present only is our own, live, love, toil with a will,
Place no faith in tomorrow, for the clock may then be still.*

Acknowledgement

Realizing that each tomorrow is not ours to understand and knowing that God never hurts needlessly and never wastes our pain, for every loss he sends to us is followed by rich gains.

Today in our loss, our hurt and our pain, we recognize our gains in you, our friends and loved ones for flowers, your whispered prayers and every kind deed have been a source of strength and comfort. You have relieved much suffering with your kind expression of sympathy and concern. We are deeply grateful and pray God's richest blessing on each of you.
