Reflections
of
Horace Claiborne, Jr.
January 29, 1945-April 16, 2013

"A precious one from us is gone, a voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our hearts, that never can be filled."

Mr. Horace ("Bo") Claiborne, Jr., was born January 29, 1945 to the late Annie Mitchell Douglas and Horace R. Claiborne, Sr. Horace departed this life Tuesday morning, April 16, 2013 at Trousdale Medical Center.

Horace was a very active member of Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, under the pastorate of Pastor Sandi McClain of Madison, Tennessee. He attended/graduated from Ward High School, Trousdale County School system.

Horace was self-employed in Moving Services and Environmental Services. He loved his family, especially his sons and daughter. He was loved by all who met him and knew him. "Bo" always carried a smile.

Horace leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Kristen R. Claiborne of Nashville, TN; five sons, Ronnie (Joyce) Claiborne of Huntsville, AL, Daryl Seay of Nashville, TN, Maurice (Joanna) Burnley of Madison, TN, Bryant Claiborne of Hartsville, TN and Marcus Ratcliff of Madison, TN; twelve grandchildren; step-mother, Ruby Claiborne of Hartsville, TN; five sisters, Dorothy Lockridge, Betty Williams, Diane (Ricky) Jones all of Nashville, TN, Yvonne (Ellis) Johnson of Lebanon, TN and Melba Claiborne of Hartsville, TN; three brothers, Michael (Christyne) Douglas, Alex and Tyrone Douglas all of Nashville, TN; two aunts, Virginia Claiborne of Hartsville, TN and Mary (Daniel) Burford of Jackson, TN; four uncles, J.W. Marshall of Hartsville, TN, Thomas and Willie Mitchell of Nashville, TN and Johnnie Lee Claiborne of Hartsville, TN. A large host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. A special friend, Annie Valentine.

"Don't Grieve for me"

Don't grieve for me now, because I am free,
I am following the path God laid for me,
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love to work or play,
So the task I left must stay that way.

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full,
I've savored many good friends, good times
And loved one's touch.
Perhaps to you, my time seems all too brief,
Don't you try to lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now and he has set me free.
