Momma,

Who am I going to butt heads with now. You are the most amazing woman I know. You showed me how to survive with little. Now I know how to make it. Your work here is finished. Job well done! You have received your healing.

Love with all my heart,
See you later,
Debbie

Mama,

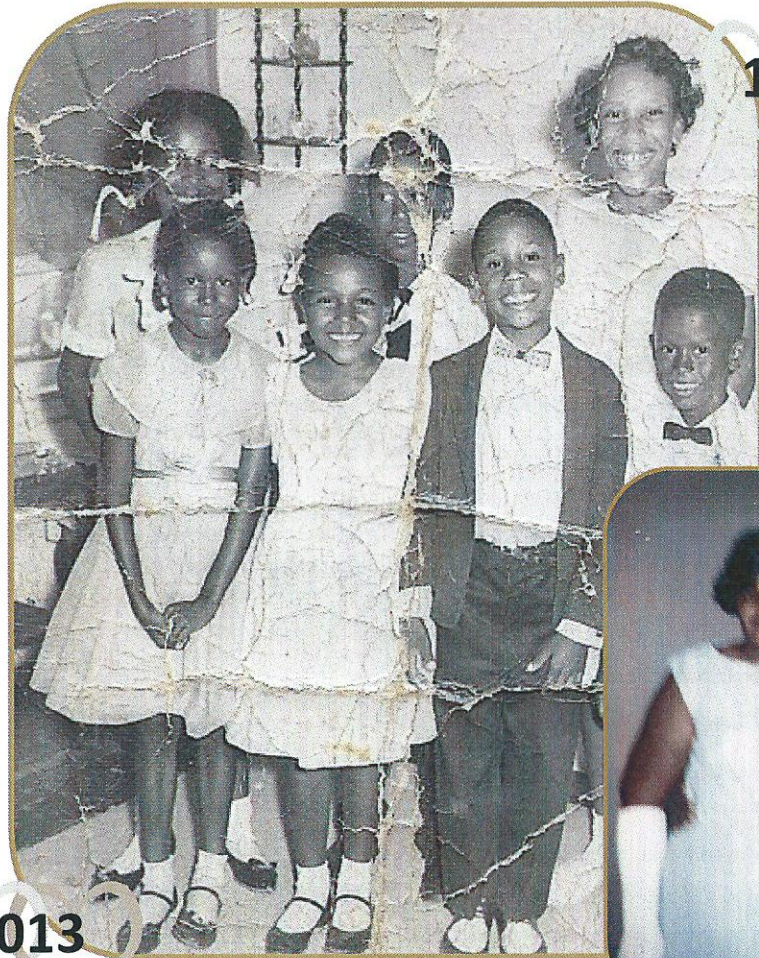

I Love You and I miss you. The Lord loves you the best, and took you on home.

Love, Willie and L.W.

I appreciate you for being a loving, caring, providing mother. Rest in peace.

stays together.

Like the dew in the morning, our memories of Sue's love, tender heart, warm smile, courage, and strength will forever rest in our hearts.

Biographical Sketch of Juanita McGowan Andrews

July 26, 1931-February 2, 2013

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven..."

Ecclesiastes 3

A Time To Be Born: Mrs. Juanita "Sue" McGowan Andrews was born July 26, 1931 in New Brockton, Alabama to the late John Wesley and Rosa Lee Smith McGowan. She was the youngest of eight children.

A Time To Die: She departed this life Saturday February 2, 2013 at her home.

A Time To Build: Juanita and William moved to Tennessee in the early 1950's where she worked as a housekeeper and cook for several families before working as a cook in the Lebanon School system. Later she became a cook at two local restaurants, Burnie's Kuntry Kitchen and New City Café. In the early 1960's she was founding member of Cedars of Lebanon Primitive Baptist Church where she served as a usher and choir member. In the late 1980's she then became a founding member of New Christian Life Non-Denominational Church.

A Time To Love: She was united in holy matrimony to William Acy Andrews.

A Time To Dance: Six children were born to this union.

A Time To Weep: She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, Gene, John and George; three sisters, Robbie, Johnnie and Bernice; son, Carl Louis and her devoted husband of 55 years, William Andrews.

A Time To Laugh: Juanita enjoyed having fish-frys and baking pies for people. Juanita loved fishing, but mostly she loved having family dinners.

A Time To Mourn: She leaves to cherish her memory, one son, Bruce (Barbara) Andrews of Murfreesboro, TN; four daughters, Betty Richardson, Willie (L.W.) Herron, Carolyn Andrews and Deborah (Greg) Johnson of Lebanon, TN; one sister, Irene Griffin of Detroit, Michigan; one brother-in-law, C.L. Andrews of Massillon, Ohio; two sisters-in-law, Lucy Andrews of Canton, Ohio and Sue Andrews of Washington, D.C.; seven grandchildren, Melissa, Tony, Lamont, Nikki, Wesley, Keasha, Gene; ten great-grandchildren, LaStacia, DeAndrea, Taylar, Tevin, Kimari, Kaleb, Darius, Korey, ZyShawn and Kitoria; two great-great grandchildren, William Aiden and Ja' Nayea Rose. Specil adopted children, Nola Lockridge, Melissa Alexander, Chanta' Stephen, Carla Coggins, Chris Grooms, Linda and Brian Barber and Chassidy Thompson; special friends, Dorothy Burns and Ronnie Kelley. A host of nieces, nephews and extended family.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Hence forth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." II Timothy 4: 7-8

“When Tomorrow Starts Without Me”

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all that we shared, and all the fun we had.
I had so much to live for, so much left to do,
It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and hug you, and maybe see you smile.

Nanny,

My guardian angel, I will love and miss you forever and always. You've done so much for me. I just wish I could have repaid you for everything, but unfortunately, I can't now. I promise you I will strive to be like the strong, independent, loving, caring, sometimes stubborn woman you are and forever will be. You and papa always made sure, "Lil Snake" had any and everything I wanted and needed. Everybody knows and is still jealous because you spoiled the cutest great grandchild.

Love always,
Branne'

*We all miss you and love you always.
Miss Elaine*

Thank you for loving us and treating us like your own. We love you and will miss you.

Jarvis & Tony

Ms. Sue,

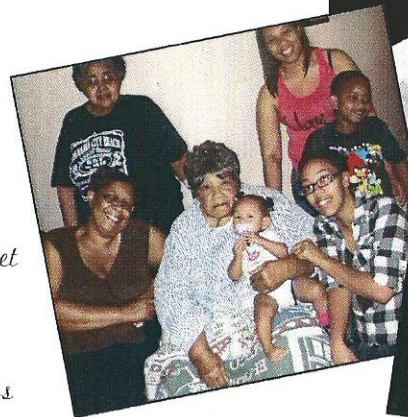

Thank you for letting me have all those turnip greens and the key to the house.

Chanta'

Aunt Sue,

We will miss you. I'll always remember going fishing and your peach cobbler...we had planned to make one.

*Love,
Jerry and Patricia*

Nanny Sue.

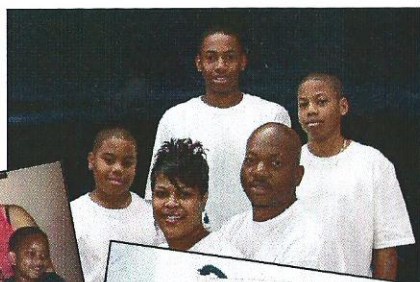

I want to first thank God for placing you in my life. From day one you made me one of your grandchildren. You never treated me any different. I just want you to know that I love you and you will never know how much that you meant to me. You were and will always be Nanny. I'm really going to miss you.

Love, Nikki

Mama Sue.

I Love You forever!

Yogi

Nanny thank you for all the things you taught me. You will be always cherished in my heart. I Love You!

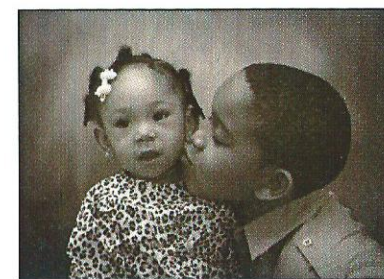

Keasha & Reggie

Juanita LaQuita-

Nanny,

Saying goodbye to you is one of the hardest things I've ever had to endure. I will never forget you for all the things you've taught me. You've not only been a grandmother to me but you have been like a mother to me as well. Even though we didn't always see eye to eye, but you never gave up on me or stopped loving me. Ja' Nayeia will always know that she had a very loving and caring great-great grandma who loved her dearly. You will forever be in my heart.

-Love Dee

Nanny,

I miss you and I love you even though you died while I am young. I know you are watching me from heaven.

Love,
Aidan

Nanny,

Who am I going to go to for advice, or who am I going to lay on when I'm sick. I will always love you for all you've done for me in my life. You were my rock...going to miss you.

Missi
