

"WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME"

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.

I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all that we shared, and all the fun we had.
I had so much to live for, so much left to do,
It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.

But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life, I'd always thought, I didn't want to die.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and hug you all, and maybe see you smile.

“Reflections”

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard his call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 I've found that peace at the end of the day
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah, yes these things too, I will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Mrs. JoAnne Hurd McCarver was born on July 1, 1937 in Lebanon, Tennessee to the late Everett Theodore Foster Hurd and Bettie Wade Hurd. She departed this life on March 15, 2015 at the young age of 76 years old.

JoAnne attended Wilson County High School where she met her late husband of twenty eight years, Abraham L. McCarver. She began her spiritual journey at Market Street Church of Christ. JoAnne earned her nursing certificate and enjoyed caring for others in her work at Clover Bottom. She also touched the lives of people she worked with at Aladdin Manufacturing. She was fondly known as the “fun” aunt, always accessible for long talks and lots of laughs.

JoAnne and Abraham loved and cared for seven children: Annie E. Yancey, Nathaniel McCarver (deceased), Debra A. Bowman, Yvonne R. (Herbert) Jones, David L. McCarver, Abraham McCarver and Willie R. (Sabrina) McCarver. She was the second child out of four children; brother, Everett Wade Hurd, sister, Martha (James) Alexander and was preceded in death by one sister, Jackie (Quilla) Harris; two aunts: Lucille Smith and Ada Marie Stokes; 17 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren and expecting her 1st great-great granddaughter whom she was looking forward to meeting.
