ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

- The Family

You have touched our lives in a way words alone will never be enough to express the times of gratitude we carry in our heavy hearts from now to eternity. Each of your tokens of sympathy have been such an impact on our lives and we thank God for each of you because you cared for us during a very dark, sad, and disturbing time for us as a family. Special thanks to Tennessee Highway Patrol, Law Enforcement of Warren County, attending Life Flight Staff and tremendous thanks to the entire physicians and nurses working the 10th floor North Trauma Center at Vanderbilt, especially Nurse Sarah and Nurse Chris.

PALTBEARERS

FLOWER LADIES

Two family trees became the bond which brought about the existence of our now deceased, Robert Eric McReynolds, Sr. At this time we give thanks to his beginning fraternal grandparents, Mr. Willie McReynolds and wife, Mrs. Avo Evans McReynolds. Along with Maternal grand parents, Mr. John and Mrs. Lurline Vaughn. Without you there wouldn't have been a Robert Lynn McReynolds or a Johnny Bell Vaughn who united in holy matrimony and conceived a beautiful adorable baby boy on March 11, 1950 who was given the name, Robert Eric McReynolds, Sr. aka "Big Mac".

The story is told that the bouncy, happy, jolly baby boy grew up and began to set and live the bars of life beginning by being educated in the public education system of Warren County. He studied and did well in academics along with participating in various sports with basketball being his favorite sport.

"For I reckon the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. -Romans 8:18"

ROBERT'S LIFE STORY

In this world "Big Mac" is leaving behind a great many associates, too many to mention, yet he while he was alive acquired true friendship in the late "Buddy Cope". Still standing Howard Henry, Robert Henry, Chertes Nowlin, Alvin Henry, Ronnie Blevins...now these were the "Real McCoy's". Finally he left to forever cherish and remember the times they shared, two beautiful nieces, Tamekia and Neisha McReynolds and one devoted nephew, Mike Roby. If you didn't read your name...charge it to my head and not my heart.

Today he will be leaving those who loved him, then and today, though our lids are overflowing with tears; we...his wife, Winnie McReynolds; sons: Robert McReynolds, Jr. (Rateisha), Eric Robertson McReynolds, Rashad D. Seay; daughter, Brandy K. Patton; son, Cameron Hill; daughter, Jennifer Hill; grandchildren include: JaQuerius McReynolds, LaTerica McReynolds, Rashad, Heaven and LaRonteze Seay, the deceased, insatiable C'Asia Patton, Montorie Patton, Megan Hill, and Marcus Hill; aunts and uncles: Elzie (Muriel) Vaughn, Pam McReynolds and Sam McReynolds and Mai Evelyn Brown; brothers-in-law: John Cowan, David Cowan, Lynn Rossi Cowan, Robert E. Cowan; sisters-in-law: Diane McReynolds, Elizabeth Richardson and Shatena Cowan.

My husband, Robert E. McReynolds was full of life, loved to party and to be the party. He was kind, good willed, generous to all associates. He was a caring individual who basically stayed in his own lane. He loved his family and had great respect for his fellow man.

After completion of his High School graduation from McMinnville City High School in the Class of 1969, "Big Mac" decided to enlist in the United States Army, landing him a tour of duty in Vietnam. After which it was time to prove self worthiness. He did so by toiling at various employment and worked consistently everyday. At the time of his death, he was still employed with Jarden.

"When someone you love becomes a memory... the memory becomes a treasure."

ORDER OF SERVICE

"I AIN'T SCARED TIL 'BIG MAC' GET SCARED."
Love, Minnie

Still loving you despite our odds and uncertainties. Through it all you always managed to fulfill the three things according to scripture a husband should do... You loved me, You provided for me, You protected me. With that in mind, I won't think of you as gone; instead I will be thankful that you are where you belong. Nothing will ever stop the memory of the time we shared, because memories are God's way of helping me through. Anytime I become sad, my heart breaks a little more or the madness creep up inside me, I just close my eyes and I am with you. I will not let old memories get in our way. I will keep looking up and Mac, know this today. As you leave this world with 66 years filled with memories of family, children, friends and good times that your life was not in vain. You finished the task you were born to do and God called you in.
