OBITUARY

Mr. Larguardo Nelson Vaughn was born September 1, 1959 in Hartsville, TN. He was the eldest of three children of the late Minnie Lucille Vaughn Reeves and the late John E. Reeves. He was called home on October 15, 2016 at Tennova Health Care in Lebanon, TN.

Mr. Vaughn graduated from Trousdale Co. High School in 1977. He attended the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and an art school in Nashville. He was a talented sketch artist and enjoyed graphics. Mr. Vaughn was an insurance salesmen and worked at Donnelley Printing Company in Gallatin for several years. Mr. Vaughn accepted Christ as his Savior and joined Key United Methodist Church in Hartsville, TN.

Mr. Vaughn will be greatly missed by his beloved children, Sons, Chad and Antwon Vaughn; Daughters, Mitzi and Margo Dirkson; Sisters, Sabrina (Russell) Conner and Torrina (Gary) Odom; Granddaughters, Nikaelyn, Myla, Aniah, and Catalaya Vaughn; Nephews, Russell and Reese Conner; Aunt, Mary Neal Williams; Cousins, Will Henry (Laura) Williams, Rhonda Williams, James Ford, Elecia Ford, Joanne Vaughn Wakefield, Ronessa Garrett Blair, Cassonya Garrett, James (Patricia) Reeves, Daniel King, and a host of other great cousins and numerous dear friends.

An obituary of Larguardo Nelson Vaughn can only reflect a faint glow of the flame that was his life. All who knew him will forever see his light. Such a light cannot be darkened. It will glow on forever.

Bubba,

We will always cherish the memories that you have given us. Like the games you made up for us to play, your playful mischief that would drive us crazy, make us laugh, and pass the time away.

We share family jokes, family feuds, and a family bond that can not be broke. We remember sibling secrets, family griefs, and precious joys. Though our paths may have changed over time, our memories and the love we have for you will forever remain. We remember that you would never say "Goodbye" because it seemed like the end. So dear brother we will "See You Later" until we meet again.

~ Love, Sabrina & Torrina ~

Goodnight Dad, God Bless

*You used to spoil me rotten
With all your love and care,
But now each time I look for you
You suddenly aren't there.
I knew that it was coming,
And that we'd have to say goodbye.*

*But Dad, I wasn't ready
And the sad day has arrived.
I'll no longer feel your arms around me tightly when I cry
Or be able to kiss you softly
or wave to you goodbye.
Because you are no longer
here in spirit anyway,
For God's special angels have been sent to carry you away.
I hope you're watching over me
the way you used to do.
It really is the only way
I think I might get through.
Our tears and hurt consume us
as we lose you in our lives,
But we have such happy memories
behind these bloodshot eyes.
I'll always miss you, Daddy,
and I'll always love you too.
There'll never be another Daddy quite as loved as you.*
