Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM 100

Reflections of Geraldine

October 6, 1936 - October 9, 2017

I can only tell you what she taught me: Jerry was born October 6, 1936. Her life started with an illness that lasted five years. She was a student and graduated from Carver High in Chicago, IL. She was the oldest of eight children and was the rock of the family. I never knew her not to work hard and she loved just as hard. Most of her work was in the medical field, 40 plus years. No one knew better than I how much she showed her love to others. I loved her more than anyone will ever know. But she didn't want tears from me ever. There is nothing you can't do or become, because you are a part of me. I will miss our loud talks and her telling me what to do, The silence in death, but I close my eyes and see her and smile. She wouldn't say my names...just Jerry. My love for you will follow you to heaven, where I know you will be waiting for me. -Shellie

Geraldine was preceded in death by siblings: Robert, Sandra and Ernest; son, Jeffrey; niece, Michelle; nephews: Billy and Michael.

She is survived by mother: Geneva Peyton; father: Earl Peyton; siblings: Barbara and Joe, Deborah, Toni, Joan; daughter, Rochelle; grandchildren: Jaclyn and Mont, Jason; great grand grandchildren: Jason, Jr., Jashona, Tylyn, Jashon, Peyton, Serious, Jalen; nieces and nephews: Anthony, Christopher, Lucky, Venus, Bryan, Candace, Alisha and a host of great nieces and nephews. She was very close and proud of great niece, Mya who is currently attending Howard University. She has cared for and inspired so many more, more than could be named.

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow, because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
