Here, There, Everywhere

You cannot see God with your natural eyes, yet He is always there
Whether it be in the stillness of the eve or in the crisp wintry air
Signs, look for signs they say, but all the signs are gone away
God is Here, God is There, God is Everywhere

A traveler seeks out shelter to shield him from the storm
Wandering and wondering where to find solace until morn
Signs, look for signs they say, but all the signs are gone away
God is Here, God is There, God is Everywhere

Light among the darkness illuminates the way
The path the Father paved for us each and every day
All we need is Jesus Christ, for He walks beside Loving us and leading us, through Him we will abide Signs, look for signs they say, a new path I see today
God is Here, God is There, God is Everywhere
