The Life of 'Tady'

Zhoante' Estilita Lavet Lyles-Tylor was born February 7, 1973 in Lebanon, TN, to Theresa Gail Lyles and the late Elvis Danny Lyles, Jr. Her blissful journey to her final home began on Saturday, January 6, 2018, now residing in the home of the King of Glory.

Zhoante' (aka "Tady") was a graduate of Whites Creek Comprehensive High School in 1991, with a concentration in cosmetology. At an early age, she professed her faith in Jesus Christ and served Him faithfully using her voice through song in some of the most amazing groups and choirs. She sang with Starks Knob Youth Choir, Vantrease Singers, Key Stewart UMC, Ernest Newman UMC, True Victory Church (Praise Team), and background for A.C.T.I.O.N., and various other opportunities. She also diligently served at "Room in the Inn" (for the homeless), Domestic Mothers, and Women of Excellence (prayer group). She taught Sunday school class and was a youth advisor in her spare time.

Zhoante's greatest passion was COOKING, but she also loved dancing and fashion. She enjoyed telling stories that would make you laugh, and she had a special "way" with words that spiced up her personality. Her deepest desire was for everyone to come together and unite in fellowship and love. She was an extravagant giver of her time and gifts. Truly, whatever Zhoante' did for people was done in the spirit of excellence with all of her sweet, thoughtful, kind and beautiful heart.

Her loving memory will be cherished by her children Zuri Lyles, Zyann, Ronald Jr., and Nikki Taylor; her darling grandchildren, Zaria and Kristopher Cheatham and Carter Taylor; her mother, Theresa Lyles; siblings, Denise (Joe) Bradford, Elvis Danny (Lashonda) Lyles III, and Kimberly (Reginald) Cannon.

The cousins who were like siblings: Natasha Lyles, Yosigo Lyles, Tanya (Burley) Nelson, and Kendra (Cedric) Cartwright.

Nieces and nephews dear to her heart: Chazn (Elissa), Caylin (Tanner), Jordan, Elijah, Johnathan, Shadai, Kyla, Christa Bradford; Layazmin, D'marcus, Ja'Kiya, Elvis IV, Nevaeh Lyles; Korbyn and Tristan Cannon; great nieces and nephews, Gabriella Bradford, Christopher Bradford, Matao Bradford, and Aria Lenox.

Devoted and cherished friends: Marcia Smith, Candance Hyde, Tami Phillips, Andrea Turner, Debra Williams; and a host of loving uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
