TRIBUTE FROM NECIE AND TERRI

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
 So he put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
 With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away,
 And although we love you dearly, we could not make you stay.
 A Golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest.
 God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

We love and miss you,
 Necie and Terri

A TRIBUTE FROM

GOODBYE DAD

It's never the right time to say goodbye.
I will miss you, Dad, and here is why.
You taught me so much: to show no fear,
To always have fun, and face the day with cheer.

You were always so able, so fast and so strong.
In your little girl's eyes you could do no wrong.
You would always listen, and you never pried.
You were the arms around me when I cried.

You never looked for praises, and you were never one to boast.
You were always there for those you loved the most.
You worked so hard, and those strong working hands
Led me through life and helped me understand
That life can be hard, and tough, and sad,
But through it all I had my Dad.

And because of you, I understood
That life was actually pretty good.
I believe in you and will follow your path,
And when things go wrong, I'll look back and laugh.

I hope you can hear me so I can let you know
That you were and will forever be my superhero.
So yes, today I am full of sorrow,
But I will smile a little more with each tomorrow.
So please, Dad, go be at rest,
And know to me you were always the best.

I love you so much and miss you every day!

ORDER OF CELEBRATION

Leaving my memories...

Minister Cason had an infectious smile that brighten every room that he entered into. He left a lasting impression in the lives of everyone that he touched. He made everybody feel as though they were his favorite. He provided prayer, counseling, guidance, advice, financial support, and the list goes on to his family and friends without expecting anything in return. The void that he leaves will be filled with the memories, laughter and valuable "life lessons" that he so effortlessly gave.

As a minister, he held strong to his convictions but never passed judgment on anyone. He taught the Gospel of Jesus Christ with compassion and love. Often times he would be seen at various church functions singing his favorite hymns. Songs such as "Too Close to the Mirror", "Just a Closer Walk With Thee", and "God's Grace" were just a few of his favorite songs that helped him thru the hard times and will carry us thru as well. Oh how we will miss him and the tears of pain today will eventually turn into tears of laughter as we reflect on our personal stories and his legacy. "Take up your bed and walk" our precious husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend.

A TRIBUTE FROM YOUR SON

A man's life is defined, to a great extent, by his values and his passions. Today we celebrate my father. A great man who was a loving husband, awesome dad, easy-going grandfather/great grandfather, a great provider and family man, my mother's best and dearest friend and I'm sure many of you will agree, blessed with a quick wit and a mind as sharp as a whip!

With the joy of life comes the inevitable certainty that the death angels will have their way. Times like this makes us all stop, catch our breaths and appreciate the time we have here on earth. We must live life to its fullest and surround ourselves with family and friends. You are sitting at the right hand of the father, singing with the angels and preaching with Paul!

My yesterdays, todays and tomorrows will never be the same. Every day I learn ways to keep pushing forward when I really want to turn back the hands of time and press stop! Its difficult processing what occurred on June 13th I refuse to say "goodbye" but I will say, "See you on the other side my hero"! I love you more than mere words, tears, thoughts, songs and poems can express.

Love always and forever,
Greg
