“ It's hard to find words to express the warmest feelings my sisters and I had for your dear mom -our babysitter! Living directly across the street from you, your mom became our mom until my mom came home from work. She lovingly looked out for us. We loved your mom. We feel for your loss. ☐The "Spruill" Family.

Mrs. Clinton was a joy to be around growing up. I will always remember when as children she took care of us when my mom was on an errand and we stayed with her for the day. We had loads of fun. These memories I will always cherish.💕

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of my beloved cousin Adeline. I'm sure my mom Elberta Zollicoffer Snow will delight in her heavenly presence; welcoming her home as she greets her at the throne. She was always such a delight to be around, with that beautiful smile, and sweet disposition; never wavering or complaining.

To her devoted son, daughter, and grandkids, there are no words, just love and prayers..... trusting God to hold you close.

Warmest Regards,

Your cousin,
Michele
